NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

How politics affect different industries is shown by reports from Washington. Bartenders state that their trade has fallen off one-half, while laundrymen say their business has doubled.

THE widow of Gen. Grant has given $25 to the Confederate Soldiers' Home at Austin, Texas. Col. Grant, in forwarding the gift, says it is sent in memory of Gen. Grant's kindly feelings toward the Southern people.

SPRING is manifest in New Jersey. Blue birds, robins and meadow larks are singing, crocuses are blooming, tulips and hyacinths are bursting their buds, and a frog has been heard in a Ridgewood swamp. Mosquitoes are also nearly ripe.

STEVE BRODIE, the hero of Brooklyn Bridge, is in Rochester teasing the Mayor to let him leap over the Genesee Falls where Sam Patch was killed fifty years ago. Brodie has become such a nuisance that the Mayor will probably let him jump.

SECRETARY TRACY has ordered all the horses on his stock farm at Marshland near Owego to be sold. Among the animals is Mambrino Dudley, whose colts have a record of 2:19¼. Gen. Tracy will give his attention to locomotion by water for the next four years.

REPORTS from the new gold regions in Lower California concerning the presence and absence of gold are conflicting. There is no doubt, however, about the absence of provisions and the hunger of the adventurers. Those who have not yet started should wait a little longer.

GEN. HARRISON has already discovered the secret of successful and unwearisome handshaking. He grasps the caller's hand before the latter is able to get a grip on him. If Mrs. Cleveland had learned this, she would have been saved the many agonizing armaches that were the torture of her White House life.

THE enmity of the New York Sun towards Mr. Cleveland is well understood, and it has good foundations. But there is inexcusable malignity in the act of publishing an old cut of Cleveland as the portrait of Virgil Jackson, the man who was hanged in Utica yesterday. The production by the Utica Observer of a correct likeness of Jackson leaves the Sun without excuse.

JONATHAN L. ADAMS of Macon, Ga., has succeeded in starving himself to death. He had robbed his friends of $70,000 by forgeries, and refused to take food as the only possible atonement for his crimes. He endured the process for twenty-six days, giving way only once, when he ate two oranges and a cake. This sickened him, and he did not yield again. In his sleep he would go through the motions of eating.

POSTMASTER GENERAL WANAMAKER can score a point with his fellow-citizens by restoring the terra-cotta 2-cent stamp to the place it filled so well. We are with the Sun against the "pale, sickly green" thing.—Utica Herald.

We do not want either. What we prefer and are going to get is the one-cent stamp for letter postage, as the Republican party promised in its platform. Mr. Wanamaker will be ready to give it to us as soon as Congress is willing. The bright blue stamp with the kindly face of Ben. Franklin upon it will do.

THE Republican State Senators held a caucus yesterday afternoon and resolved to push the Vedder liquor tax bill. They did not meet with the Assemblymen in caucus last night. This seems to have brought the Assemblymen to their senses, for they appointed a committee to amend the Excise Commission bill. When the committee gets through with the bill the liquor dealers will probably find it less acceptable to them than universal free rum.

A VERY deliberate suicide was Lizzie Barcune of Cohoes. Last Tuesday she called upon an undertaker, selected a beautiful coffin and paid for it. She next purchased a marble vase to be laid on her grave. On Wednesday she started for her work, and in a little while her hat and wraps were found on the canal bank. Yesterday the water of the canal was drawn out, and her body recovered. Her brother was accidentally drowned four years ago, and her mother had recently died.

SINCE Gov. Hill has shown his hand as a framer of ballot reform bills for the Legislature, we hope he will continue to send them in. A much needed reform was suggested by one of the Governor's "hand-me-down" Judges last fall, in his complaint that Democratic votes had suddenly gone up from $1 to $25 apiece. The bill that is needed is one which shall forbid, with heavy penalties, the demanding by Democratic voters of more than $2 for votes. Unless a law of this kind is enacted the Democratic party, now deprived of federal patronage, is likely to break up within a year.

THE only important evidence in the McDow-Dawson inquest at Charleston yesterday was that of a gentleman who was driving by the scene of the murder in a carriage. He swore that he saw Dawson step off a horse car and go into McDow's office. Five minutes later he heard a voice say, "You said you would take my life; now I have taken yours." The feeling against McDow is intensified by his admission that he remained with Dawson two hours and saw him die without calling for help. McDow was committed for murder and his coachman as an accessory. The latter had carried McDow's missives to Dawson's servant girl.

GOV. Hill has prepared an electoral reform bill and sent it to the Senate with the information that he will sign it if passed. It is only a little worse than the present law. All restrictions upon bribery are removed, while voters and candidates are allowed to print and circulate their own ballots. This is the first instance in the history of the state in which a Governor has interfered with the prerogatives of the Legislature by drafting a bill and saying to it, "Take that or nothing." Mr. Linson introduced the bill. It is to be wished that he had appended to his introduction the words "by request." The Governor caused to be circulated among the members a printed argument in favor of the bill.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, March 15.—This being the last day for the introduction of bills in the Assembly except by unanimous consent, 75 or 80 measures were dumped into the Legislature hopper. The first hour of the session was thus occupied and as the Speaker called the roll of counties nearly every member responded with one and some with a handful. Among the most important measures introduced were these: By Mullaney, authorizing the Common Council of New-York City to expend $15,000 for decorating public buildings and for a display of fire-works in the parks on the occasion of the Centennial of Washington's Inauguration. By LeRoy, increasing the salary of the Factory Inspector to $2,500, and that of his Assistant to $2,000. The deputies are increased in number from eight to 16 at salaries of $1,500. By Cottrell, simplifying the assessment and collection of State, county, town, school and village taxes by doing away with village and school collectors. By Gorham, for the amicable adjustment of disputes between chartered corporations and their employes. It provides that the Board of Mediation and Arbitration, at the request of either party, shall proceed to the locality and decide all questions involved. Such corporations and employes shall be bound by the decisions of the Board. It also provides during the pendency of such dispute the corporation shall not discharge any employe, except upon five days' notice, and the employe shall not leave the service of such corporation without five days' notice of his purpose and the reasons therefore. By Hitt, appropriating $2,500,000 for the completion of the New Capitol under the direction of the Capitol Commissioner, the plans for the completion of the structure to be first approved by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor and the Speaker of the Assembly, or a majority of them. By Towne, for the better protection of policy or certificate holders in co-operative or assessment life and casualty insurance companies. It provides officers having charge of funds shall give bonds to double the amount of money held. By Whipple, to provide for the welfare of the Indians of the State. It authorizes the Governor to cause to be surveyed all lands held by Indians as reservations, and to allot such lands in severalty in fee simple to the Indians occupying the same. A Commission of three is to be appointed by the Governor to superintend such survey, and $25,000 is appropriated for expenses. By Bauer, to secure uniform and inexpensive text-books for public schools. A Board on School Text-Books is appointed, and $10,000 is appropriated. By Stevens, repealing Chapter 623, Laws of 1887, relative to the game laws. By Bauer, appropriating $12,000 for a grade bridge at Alexander-street, Rochester. By Guenther, incorporating the Buffalo & Niagara Power and Drainage Company with a capital stock not exceeding $5,000,000. By Ainsworth, consolidating Oswego and Pullaski into a single school district. Also authorizing G. A. R. Posts to organize as a reserve guard to the militia. By Crosby, Mayor Grant's rapid transit bill. By Harwood, repealing the act to provide for the election of an additional Justice of the Peace in the town of Niagara. By Dunlap, authorizing the erection of wire fences. By Demarest, prohibiting the storing or use of naptha, gasoline or spirits of petroleum in reservoirs, tanks or other attachments to street lamps in all places in the State. By Hitt, allowing any Board of Supervisors in the State to fix the term of office of Supervisors at not more than two years.

Mr. McAdam introduced a bill providing for the labeling of bottles, boxes, etc., containing oil or lard, of which cotton seed oil is a component part.

Sullivan offered a resolution to adjourn over for St. Patrick's Day. After having some fun over the resolution the members tabled it, refusing to accept Crosby's suggestion to refer it to the Committee on Game Laws, by reason of the Patron Saint's connection with snakes.

Andrus offered a resolution which was adopted unanimously, congratulating General George S. Batcheller on his appointment as First Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Bills introduced: By Fassett, the skeleton of a prison bill, to be filled in hereafter. By Kellogg, to prevent gambling in securities and commodities. By Linson, including villages detached "or otherwise" in sections six and 12 of Chapter 573, laws of 1886, relative to the formation of town and county co-operative insurance societies.

By McAdam, to prevent gambling in coffee. By M. A. Smith, appropriating $20,000 to improve the Delaware River near Cochecton. By Husted, providing that after June 1, 1889, the principal keeper in each State Prison shall be known as the Deputy Warden and receive a salary of $2,000.

Encouraging Reports Received by the Navy Department About the Work.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Encouraging reports come to the Navy Department respecting the torpedo boat now building at the Herreshoff Works, in Rhode Island. The inspectors say the material used is of high quality and the work of good character. Before March 1 most of the steel skin was in place, only one course remaining to be riveted on the hull. The deck plates are on as far as practicable, the quadruple expansion engines have been set up in the shop and the contractors expect to complete the boat by June 1. The boat is required to make 22 knots an hour. If it fulfills the requirements, of which there is little doubt, it will be the fleetest boat in the United States, and fully equal to any possessed by European navies.

This, he believed, would be brought about by Northern men settling in the South and realizing the true condition of affairs and creating a sentiment in its favor in the North. Touching the issue in the coming campaign in this State the speaker declared the race question should overshadow every other. Funeral on Saturday, at 2 P. M., from the First Reformed Church of Kingston. Burial private.

LOST IN THE STORM.

One of our local editors clipped from a leading magazine extracts from a vivid description of a western blizzard which we have taken the liberty to publish and at the same time suggest to H. H. Warner & Co., the proprietors of the celebrated Warner's Safe Cure, the feasibility of taking therefrom an extract for the introduction of one of their telling advertisements. The following is the description:

"At the close of a dark day in January a solitary horseman wends his way across the open prairie in one of our Western territories. He passes at long intervals the lone cabin of the hardy frontiersman. Two or three old settlers, of whom he has inquired the way, have warned him that a storm is approaching, and one of them, with true Western hospitality, urges him to find shelter in his cabin for the night. But he declines the proffered kindness, and urges his tired horse forward. * * The sky grows suddenly dark. * * * He decides to seek shelter. * * * The storm increases in its fury. * * * The rider dismounts to warm his fast-chilling limbs. * * * Can scarcely breathe. Blindness comes on. Drowziness steals over him. The end is near. * * * He is lost in the blizzard."

There is no doubt that the terror which seizes the bewildered traveler is similar to that which overcomes one when he learns that he is suffering from an advanced Kidney Disease, and is informed that he is in the last stages of Bright's disease. At first he is informed that he has a slight kidney affection. Later he begins to feel tired. Slight headache. Fickly appetite. Failure of the eye-sight. Cramp in the calf of the legs. Wakefulness. Distressing nervousness. Rheumatic and neuralgic pains. Occasionally pain in the back. Scanty, dark colored fluids, with scalding sensation. Gradual failure of strength.

Any of the above symptoms signify Kidney Affection, but he is told that he is all right. His physician treats him for symptoms and calls it a disease, when in reality it is but a symptom of Kidney trouble. He may be treated for Rheumatic or Neuralgic pains, heart affection, or any other disease which he is most susceptible to. Finally the patient has puffing under the eyes, slight bloating of the ankles and legs. His physician may inform him that it is but the accumulation of blood in his ankles for want of proper exercise.

The bloat continues and reaches his body. Then he is informed he has dropsical troubles, and is tapped once or twice. He notices it is difficult to breathe owing to irregular action of the heart, and finally is informed that he has a slight attack of Bright's Disease. Soon his friends are notified that his is an advanced case of Bright's Disease, and that he can live but a short time. His honorable and dignified physician asks for counsel. It is too late. Still he sticks to the old family physician, and the physician knows and has known from the beginning that the patient has been stricken with death for months, for he knows full well that the profession acknowledge they have no remedies for the cure of Kidney Disease.

At last the patient suffocates—is smothered—and dies from dropsical trouble. Or perhaps the disease may not take the form of a dropsical tendency, and the patient dies from apoplexy, paralysis, pneumonia or heart trouble. Or it may take the form of blood poisoning. In each form the end is the same. And yet he and his friends were warned by the proprietors of the celebrated remedy known as Warner's Safe Cure of the lurking dangers of a slight kidney affection.

The newspapers have published the dangers. Columns of facts have been printed of men dying from advanced Kidney Disease or Bright's Disease. His friends and physician look around with horror and regret for seeming neglect, but he is lost. He did not heed the warning that a storm was approaching. He declined the proffered hospitality, and recklessly went forward into danger. He struggled manfully for a time, but his strength failed, he grew gradually weaker and he was lost to the world. Not in a blizzard, but from the terrible malady which is almost daily occurring in every community, and which is doctored as a symptom instead of what it is—a mortal disease unless properly treated.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

How politics affect different industries is shown by reports from Washington. Bartenders state that their trade has fallen off one-half, while laundrymen say their business has doubled.

THE widow of Gen. Grant has given $25 to the Confederate Soldiers' Home at Austin, Texas. Col. Grant, in forwarding the gift, says it is sent in memory of Gen. Grant's kindly feelings toward the Southern people.

SPRING is manifest in New Jersey. Blue birds, robins and meadow larks are singing, crocuses are blooming, tulips and hyacinths are bursting their buds, and a frog has been heard in a Ridgewood swamp. Mosquitoes are also nearly ripe.

STEVE BRODIE, the hero of Brooklyn Bridge, is in Rochester teasing the Mayor to let him leap over the Genesee Falls where Sam Patch was killed fifty years ago. Brodie has become such a nuisance that the Mayor will probably let him jump.

SECRETARY TRACY has ordered all the horses on his stock farm at Marshland near Owego to be sold. Among the animals is Mambrino Dudley, whose colts have a record of 2:19¼. Gen. Tracy will give his attention to locomotion by water for the next four years.

REPORTS from the new gold regions in Lower California concerning the presence and absence of gold are conflicting. There is no doubt, however, about the absence of provisions and the hunger of the adventurers. Those who have not yet started should wait a little longer.

GEN. HARRISON has already discovered the secret of successful and unwearisome handshaking. He grasps the caller's hand before the latter is able to get a grip on him. If Mrs. Cleveland had learned this, she would have been saved the many agonizing armaches that were the torture of her White House life.

THE enmity of the New York Sun towards Mr. Cleveland is well understood, and it has good foundations. But there is inexcusable malignity in the act of publishing an old cut of Cleveland as the portrait of Virgil Jackson, the man who was hanged in Utica yesterday. The production by the Utica Observer of a correct likeness of Jackson leaves the Sun without excuse.

JONATHAN L. ADAMS of Macon, Ga., has succeeded in starving himself to death. He had robbed his friends of $70,000 by forgeries, and refused to take food as the only possible atonement for his crimes. He endured the process for twenty-six days, giving way only once, when he ate two oranges and a cake. This sickened him, and he did not yield again. In his sleep he would go through the motions of eating.

POSTMASTER GENERAL WANAMAKER can score a point with his fellow-citizens by restoring the terra-cotta 2-cent stamp to the place it filled so well. We are with the Sun against the "pale, sickly green" thing.—Utica Herald.

We do not want either. What we prefer and are going to get is the one-cent stamp for letter postage, as the Republican party promised in its platform. Mr. Wanamaker will be ready to give it to us as soon as Congress is willing. The bright blue stamp with the kindly face of Ben. Franklin upon it will do.

THE Republican State Senators held a caucus yesterday afternoon and resolved to push the Vedder liquor tax bill. They did not meet with the Assemblymen in caucus last night. This seems to have brought the Assemblymen to their senses, for they appointed a committee to amend the Excise Commission bill. When the committee gets through with the bill the liquor dealers will probably find it less acceptable to them than universal free rum.

A VERY deliberate suicide was Lizzie Barcune of Cohoes. Last Tuesday she called upon an undertaker, selected a beautiful coffin and paid for it. She next purchased a marble vase to be laid on her grave. On Wednesday she started for her work, and in a little while her hat and wraps were found on the canal bank. Yesterday the water of the canal was drawn out, and her body recovered. Her brother was accidentally drowned four years ago, and her mother had recently died.

SINCE Gov. Hill has shown his hand as a framer of ballot reform bills for the Legislature, we hope he will continue to send them in. A much needed reform was suggested by one of the Governor's "hand-me-down" Judges last fall, in his complaint that Democratic votes had suddenly gone up from $1 to $25 apiece. The bill that is needed is one which shall forbid, with heavy penalties, the demanding by Democratic voters of more than $2 for votes. Unless a law of this kind is enacted the Democratic party, now deprived of federal patronage, is likely to break up within a year.

THE only important evidence in the McDow-Dawson inquest at Charleston yesterday was that of a gentleman who was driving by the scene of the murder in a carriage. He swore that he saw Dawson step off a horse car and go into McDow's office. Five minutes later he heard a voice say, "You said you would take my life; now I have taken yours." The feeling against McDow is intensified by his admission that he remained with Dawson two hours and saw him die without calling for help. McDow was committed for murder and his coachman as an accessory. The latter had carried McDow's missives to Dawson's servant girl.

Gov. Hill has prepared an electoral reform bill and sent it to the Senate with the information that he will sign it if passed. It is only a little worse than the present law. All restrictions upon bribery are removed, while voters and candidates are allowed to print and circulate their own ballots. This is the first instance in the history of the state in which a Governor has interfered with the prerogatives of the Legislature by drafting a bill and saying to it, "Take that or nothing." Mr. Linson introduced the bill. It is to be wished that he had appended to his introduction the words "by request." The Governor caused to be circulated among the members a printed argument in favor of the bill.

Last Day for Bills Except by Unanimous Consent; Business Transacted.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, March 15.—This being the last day for the introduction of bills in the Assembly except by unanimous consent, 75 or 80 measures were dumped into the Legislature hopper. The first hour of the session was thus occupied and as the Speaker called the roll of counties nearly every member responded with one and some with a handful. Among the most important measures introduced were these: By Mullaney, authorizing the Common Council of New-York City to expend $15,000 for decorating public buildings and for a display of fire-works in the parks on the occasion of the Centennial of Washington's Inauguration. By LeRoy, increasing the salary of the Factory Inspector to $2,500, and that of his Assistant to $2,000. The deputies are increased in number from eight to 16 at salaries of $1,500. By Cottrell, simplifying the assessment and collection of State, county, town, school and village taxes by doing away with village and school collectors. By Gorham, for the amicable adjustment of disputes between chartered corporations and their employes. It provides that the Board of Mediation and Arbitration, at the request of either party, shall proceed to the locality and decide all questions involved. Such corporations and employes shall be bound by the decisions of the Board. It also provides during the pendency of such dispute the corporation shall not discharge any employe, except upon five days' notice, and the employe shall not leave the service of such corporation without five days' notice of his purpose and the reasons therefore. By Hitt, appropriating $2,500,000 for the completion of the New Capitol under the direction of the Capitol Commissioner, the plans for the completion of the structure to be first approved by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor and the Speaker of the Assembly, or a majority of them. By Towne, for the better protection of policy or certificate holders in co-operative or assessment life and casualty insurance companies. It provides officers having charge of funds shall give bonds to double the amount of money held. By Whipple, to provide for the welfare of the Indians of the State. It authorizes the Governor to cause to be surveyed all lands held by Indians as reservations, and to allot such lands in severalty in fee simple to the Indians occupying the same. A Commission of three is to be appointed by the Governor to superintend such survey, and $25,000 is appropriated for expenses. By Bauer, to secure uniform and inexpensive text-books for public schools. A Board on School Text-Books is appointed, and $10,000 is appropriated. By Stevens, repealing Chapter 623, Laws of 1887, relative to the game laws. By Bauer, appropriating $12,000 for a grade bridge at Alexander-street, Rochester. By Guenther, incorporating the Buffalo & Niagara Power and Drainage Company with a capital stock not exceeding $5,000,000. By Ainsworth, consolidating Oswego and Pullaski into a single school district. Also authorizing G. A. R. Posts to organize as a reserve guard to the militia. By Crosby, Mayor Grant's rapid transit bill. By Harwood, repealing the act to provide for the election of an additional Justice of the Peace in the town of Niagara. By Dunlap, authorizing the erection of wire fences. By Demarest, prohibiting the storing or use of naptha, gasoline or spirits of petroleum in reservoirs, tanks or other attachments to street lamps in all places in the State. By Hitt, allowing any Board of Supervisors in the State to fix the term of office of Supervisors at not more than two years.

Mr. McAdam introduced a bill providing for the labeling of bottles, boxes, etc., containing oil or lard, of which cotton seed oil is a component part.

Sullivan offered a resolution to adjourn over for St. Patrick's Day. After having some fun over the resolution the members tabled it, refusing to accept Crosby's suggestion to refer it to the Committee on Game Laws, by reason of the Patron Saint's connection with snakes.

Andrus offered a resolution which was adopted unanimously, congratulating General George S. Batcheller on his appointment as First Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Bills introduced: By Fassett, the skeleton of a prison bill, to be filled in hereafter. By Kellogg, to prevent gambling in securities and commodities. By Linson, including villages detached "or otherwise" in sections six and 12 of Chapter 573, laws of 1886, relative to the formation of town and county co-operative insurance societies.

By McAdam, to prevent gambling in coffee. By M. A. Smith, appropriating $20,000 to improve the Delaware River near Cochecton. By Husted, providing that after June 1, 1889, the principal keeper in each State Prison shall be known as the Deputy Warden and receive a salary of $2,000.

THE HERRESHOFF TORPEDO BOAT.

Encouraging Reports Received by the Navy Department About the Work.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Encouraging reports come to the Navy Department respecting the torpedo boat now building at the Herreshoff Works, in Rhode Island. The inspectors say the material used is of high quality and the work of good character. Before March 1 most of the steel skin was in place, only one course remaining to be riveted on the hull. The deck plates are on as far as practicable, the quadruple expansion engines have been set up in the shop and the contractors expect to complete the boat by June 1. The boat is required to make 22 knots an hour. If it fulfills the requirements, of which there is little doubt, it will be the fleetest boat in the United States, and fully equal to any possessed by European navies.

INCENDIARY FIRE IN NEW-YORK.

Lives of Members of 17 Families Endangered—Arrested on Suspicion.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, March 15.—Shortly before midnight a fire, that was soon put out, was discovered in the tenement house at 1,195 First-avenue, which was occupied by 17 families. The fire caused great excitement among the tenants. Afterwards it was found that the floors had been saturated with kerosene. Daniel O'Connell, who was ejected from the house yesterday, was arrested on suspicion of being the incendiary. He had made threats after he was put out.

Mr. Flournoy said he believed the solution of this great question would be the final disfranchisement of the colored man. This, he believed, would be brought about by Northern men settling in the South and realizing the true condition of affairs and creating a sentiment in its favor in the North. Touching the issue in the coming campaign in this State the speaker declared the race question should overshadow every other. "If," said he, "I were the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, I would kick out of the party any speaker who alluded to the debt or tariff."

LOST IN THE STORM.

One of our local editors clipped from a leading magazine extracts from a vivid description of a western blizzard which we have taken the liberty to publish and at the same time suggest to H. H. Warner & Co., the proprietors of the celebrated Warner's Safe Cure, the feasibility of taking therefrom an extract for the introduction of one of their telling advertisements. The following is the description:

"At the close of a dark day in January a solitary horseman wends his way across the open prairie in one of our Western territories. He passes at long intervals the lone cabin of the hardy frontiersman. Two or three old settlers, of whom he has inquired the way, have warned him that a storm is approaching, and one of them, with true Western hospitality, urges him to find shelter in his cabin for the night. But he declines the proffered kindness, and urges his tired horse forward. * * The sky grows suddenly dark. * * * He decides to seek shelter. * * * The storm increases in its fury. * * * The rider dismounts to warm his fast-chilling limbs. * * * Can scarcely breathe. Blindness comes on. Drowziness steals over him. The end is near. * * * He is lost in the blizzard."

There is no doubt that the terror which seizes the bewildered traveler is similar to that which overcomes one when he learns that he is suffering from an advanced Kidney Disease, and is informed that he is in the last stages of Bright's disease. At first he is informed that he has a slight kidney affection. Later he begins to feel tired. Slight headache. Fickly appetite. Failure of the eye-sight. Cramp in the calf of the legs. Wakefulness. Distressing nervousness. Rheumatic and neuralgic pains. Occasionally pain in the back. Scanty, dark colored fluids, with scalding sensation. Gradual failure of strength.

Any of the above symptoms signify Kidney Affection, but he is told that he is all right. His physician treats him for symptoms and calls it a disease, when in reality it is but a symptom of Kidney trouble. He may be treated for Rheumatic or Neuralgic pains, heart affection, or any other disease which he is most susceptible to. Finally the patient has puffing under the eyes, slight bloating of the ankles and legs. His physician may inform him that it is but the accumulation of blood in his ankles for want of proper exercise.

The bloat continues and reaches his body. Then he is informed he has dropsical troubles, and is tapped once or twice. He notices it is difficult to breathe owing to irregular action of the heart, and finally is informed that he has a slight attack of Bright's Disease. Soon his friends are notified that his is an advanced case of Bright's Disease, and that he can live but a short time. His honorable and dignified physician asks for counsel. It is too late. Still he sticks to the old family physician, and the physician knows and has known from the beginning that the patient has been stricken with death for months, for he knows full well that the profession acknowledge they have no remedies for the cure of Kidney Disease.

At last the patient suffocates—is smothered—and dies from dropsical trouble. Or perhaps the disease may not take the form of a dropsical tendency, and the patient dies from apoplexy, paralysis, pneumonia or heart trouble. Or it may take the form of blood poisoning. In each form the end is the same. And yet he and his friends were warned by the proprietors of the celebrated remedy known as Warner's Safe Cure of the lurking dangers of a slight kidney affection.

The newspapers have published the dangers. Columns of facts have been printed of men dying from advanced Kidney Disease or Bright's Disease. His friends and physician look around with horror and regret for seeming neglect, but he is lost. He did not heed the warning that a storm was approaching. He declined the proffered hospitality, and recklessly went forward into danger. He struggled manfully for a time, but his strength failed, he grew gradually weaker and he was lost to the world. Not in a blizzard, but from the terrible malady which is almost daily occurring in every community, and which is doctored as a symptom instead of what it is—a mortal disease unless properly treated.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, March 15. —Indications for Saturday: Fair weather, followed by light rain.

A SINGULAR SUGGESTION.

Admiral Porter has presented an original solution of the foreign war question. He says that if Germany should try to blockade our ports, in less than sixty days we would find an English fleet on our coast involved in protecting her own trade with the United States. "A hundred millions and more of British goods finding a market in the United States could not be cut off without ruining British industries. France would also have an interest. Meanwhile we could get along without their goods if necessary. So that England and France would be forced, as a measure of industrial self-defense, to protect their vessels and their trade with the United States."

Therefore, all we have to do, when Germany moves up with her blockade, is to say to England and France, "Drive those ships away, or we will stop buying your goods. Worse than this, we will set our own factories running, and show you that we can make our own goods." England and France would come of course and scatter the German fleets. England has knocked around the world with her guns a good deal lately, waging wars of commerce with little states and forcing them to buy of her. She has never tried this on the United States because we are too big. But here is a plan that will enable her to fight for our trade in a roundabout way, a sort of "whipping the devil over the stump." If Germany and England should secretly enter into a combination to force this obligation upon us, they would hold us at their mercy. A nation that once acknowledges to the world its helplessness and accepts England as its defender against other great powers would find it difficult to escape from the condition of thraldom in which it had placed itself. England's guns would be even more effective for protecting her trade with the United States after the blockade had been lifted than while the guns of Germany were pointing at our shores.

Perhaps the workingmen of the country would like to consider the matter. If they do not like to assist in the hazardous work of defending the country from a German blockade, they can be relieved from that duty by simply consenting to give England our trade and to have their own employments destroyed. Possibly some of them may conclude that national honor, their own manhood, citizenship, the right to labor, are not worth the cost if they must be fought for. Perhaps they would prefer to have the Union dissolved and the several states take the old position of colonies and dependencies of Great Britain. There may be such workingmen, but if so, they are probably Democrats of the Cleveland and Bayard pattern.

We look confidently for a different settlement of this little misunderstanding with Germany by the new administration. Great Britain and France will not be called on to fight for us during the next four years at least.

WHERE CLEVELAND'S GANG IS DESPISED.

The Troy Telegram, noticing the announcement that Cleveland, Lamont and Fairchild are going to Cuba, advises them to continue their journey till they reach England. There they will be received with open arms, as "those who worked so faithfully to prostrate our industries for the benefit of the English manufacturers." The Queen is expected to confer on them the order of the Knight of the Garter, and a due sense of gratitude may induce Parliament to vote every one of them a pension for life. These favors are predicted because they "despise and hate everything American." And in conclusion the Telegram prays God to "forbid that this country should ever be cursed again by such an administration."

Mr. Cleveland is learning just now what the verdict of impartial history is likely to be upon his free trade policy. The Telegram is published in a manufacturing city, which has felt and is still feeling the paralysis caused by the President's message and the long menace held over the country by the Mills bill. There is no partisanship in the Telegram; it only seeks to reflect the interests of its constituency. Rensselaer county, which gave a Democratic majority of 3,144 in 1887, turned around and gave Harrison 309 majority. Cohoes, affected by similar influence, changed its Democratic majority of 266 in 1887 to 366 for Harrison in 1888. Watervliet, which includes the large manufacturing villages of West Troy and Green Island, changed its Democratic majority of 398 to one for Harrison of 202. Waterford raised its Republican majority from 160 to 365 and Lansingburg from 581 to 976. These places all lie adjacent to Troy, whose Democratic majority fell from 3,269 to 1,804. The Telegram has therefore the backing of its manufacturing constituency in its attack on the late administration. When it prays for deliverance from the danger of another such administration, it only gives expression to the invocation of 100,000 working people.

Perhaps it is hardly necessary, however, for all representatives of labor to give utterance to all the bitterness they feel. The policy that sat like a heavy nightmare upon our industries for four years is dead, and may as well be given a decent burial. Its ghost can never rise to haunt the objects of its persecution. When Congress meets there will be set in operation an American policy. When increased tariff duties check the flood of foreign importations, and the surplus goods being poured into this country in anticipation of high duties are sold off, then there will be a clear field at home for American manufactures. We hope Mr. Cleveland and his companions will visit England and remain long enough to study the effect of free trade upon industry there. If they do this they will become much better Americans than they showed themselves to be while in office.

WEST VIRGINIA POLITICS.

As was to be expected, the Democratic Supreme Court of West Virginia decides against Senator Carr's claims as Governor, and allows Wilson to continue in office. This serves Carr right. His vote, if he had joined the Republicans, would have made Goff Governor and elected him Senator. This would have carried himself into the Governorship with an unclouded title. But he accepted an election to the chair of the Senate from the Democrats after having made a bargain with Wilson that the latter should resign in favor of Carr, who would then appoint him to the Senate. The conditions of this bargain forced Carr to vote for Kenna, whose election spoiled the program. There was then no Senatorship for Wilson, and he concluded to keep the office that he held. Now the court confirms him in that office, and Carr is "in the soup."

We notice that Gen. Goff, who is the real Governor elect of the state, has started for Washington. He permits the statement to be published that he will make a determined fight for his rights before the Legislature. But the Legislature holds only biennial sessions, and cannot meet again till January, 1891, unless Wilson calls it together. But even then he can hardly rely upon the honor of a body that refused to perform its constitutional duty of counting the vote because the count would make him Governor. His record is not stained by any deals or dickers, as is Carr's. But he should have gone to Washington before submitting his case to the decision of a partisan and scoundrelly court. He had taken the oath of office, and he should have proceeded at once to discharge its duties. Then if he found it necessary he could have carried to Washington the evidence of his election and called upon the federal administration to sustain him. He bore up nobly to the end, but failed at the critical moment. The federal government can hardly establish him in the office now, neither can it place him in a position that would take him out of the contest for the Governorship. He must wait two years and then engage in a fight that is sure to end in defeat, unless a Republican clean sweep in the Congressional districts in 1890 frightens the scoundrels into decency.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Jeff Davis no longer enjoys the distinction of being the only living Democratic ex-President. There are two of them now.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The real reason why Tom Platt didn't get into the Cabinet was because Jerry Rusk was to go there. The President objects to Tom and Jerry.—Boston Herald.

Lawyer Cleveland ought to have no difficulty in living within his income, as he already has begun a career of boarding 'round at various banqueting tables.—Buffalo Express.

New Hampshire has "sat down on" prohibition. The sturdy voters of the granite state don't believe in substituting sham for substance. A stringent high-license law will probably be next in order.--Troy Times.

The Democratic office-holder who raises the point that he is discharging the duties of his post faithfully, raises the pertinent question how he comes in the place at all when its duties were being discharged by just as good a man four years ago.—Philadelphia Press.

The new Mayor of Boston insists on a trial in that municipality of the Philadelphia plan of "pay as you go." He is on the right track. It is at times troublesome to make the taxpayer "go" fast enough for the needed pace of improvement; but it is better, despite all drawbacks, to live within the city income.—Philadelphia Record.

The true philosopher can extract the sweets of consolation from the sting of apparent defeat. President Lincoln informed a disappointed applicant who had learned the Spanish language in the expectation of receiving a diplomatic appointment that he still had a very good thing in being able to read Don Quixote in the original.—Providence Journal.

There is some curiosity touching the cause of an Arab emigration to the United States which has begun and is continuing. A newspaper suggests that the Arabs are attracted by the deserts of the Southwest. We expect that some one will say next that they are going to Albany, charmed by the fine opportunity there to "silently steal away."—Syracuse Standard.

A young man who only a few years ago was one of the best paid and most competent clerks in this city was arrested last week for vagrancy. Whisky and riotous living were his ruin. He is now without home or friends or respect, and sleeps, frequently, at the police station. He was one of those drinkers who can stop when they want to, but who never want to stop until it is too late.—Ithaca Journal.

It cannot be denied that the Republican future is brighter to-day than it has been for many years. The party is in absolute control of all the branches of government, and the admission of four new Republican states will soon give a new increment of strength to the party, while the new apportionment based on the census of 1890 will still further increase the Republican advantage.—Atlanta Constitution, Dem.

There is too much talk about the purchasable character of the Southern Negro as a reason why he is not and ought not to be allowed to vote, and it is very cheap talk. Whisky costs less than guns and ammunition, and if the Southern Negro vote could be bought for a glass of whisky it would be, and it would go to swell the Democratic majorities of the "Solid South."—Brooklyn Standard-Union.

ARE YOU MADE miserable by Indigestion, Co? stipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clark.

IS ANY "FLOWER BORN TO BLUSH UNSEEN?"

The old wives tell us "that blushing is virtue's livery." But, alas! to many a maiden, whose soul is purity itself, has been denied the gracious privilege of wearing the delicate crimson; and all because her skin is covered with blotches, pimples, yellow "liver spots," and other discolorations. Who can tell how such a maiden loathes the very sight of herself, or who shall intrude upon her as she weeps bitter tears over her uncomely appearance? Thrice unhappy she, if by the use of cosmetics, she shall seek to hide her wretched complexion. But if she will use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, to regulate the liver and purify the blood of all poisonous humors, she will find that her "flesh shall come again like unto the flesh of a little child." It cures scrofula, tetter, salt-rheum, pimples, blotches, eruptions, and all skin diseases. Druggists.

Bad blood causes dyspepsia and dyspepsia reacts by causing bad blood. So both go on, growing worse, until the whole system is poisoned. The surest means of relief for the victim is a thorough and persistent course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

COMMON AIR.

The breath of life is conveyed to every part of the human lungs by means of a system of fine vessels called the bronchial tubes. When these are clogged up by an accumulation of mucous, so that breathing is very difficult, especially after any exertion, a person has the leading symptoms of Asthma or Phthisic. Besides this the tubes are often reduced to much less than their natural diameter by spasmodic contraction; often nearly suffocating the sufferer. Whether the case is of long standing or not. Dr. David Kennedy's Cherry Balsam is the most efficacious known remedy. It at once loosens the mucous matter, and causes it to be ejected by a free and easy expectoration. The Balsam in such cases should be taken in larger doses than for a common Cough, and no harm is done if some vomiting results. Take particular notice that if the disease is complicated with a dyspeptic state of the stomach Kennedy's Favorite Remedy must be used to correct the digestion. The case must be very severe that will not rapidly improve under this treatment.

100,000 PEOPLE PERISH!

More than 100,000 persons annually die in this country from Consumption, which is but the child of Catarrh. $500 reward is offered by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy for a case of Catarrh which they cannot cure. The Remedy is sold by druggists; 50 cents.

PILES! PILES! ITCHING PILES.

Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cent. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

A SINGULAR SUGGESTION.

Admiral Porter has presented an original solution of the foreign war question. He says that if Germany should try to blockade our ports, in less than sixty days we would find an English fleet on our coast involved in protecting her own trade with the United States. "A hundred millions and more of British goods finding a market in the United States could not be cut off without ruining British industries. France would also have an interest. Meanwhile we could get along without their goods if necessary. So that England and France would be forced, as a measure of industrial self-defense, to protect their vessels and their trade with the United States."

Therefore, all we have to do, when Germany moves up with her blockade, is to say to England and France, "Drive those ships away, or we will stop buying your goods. Worse than this, we will set our own factories running, and show you that we can make our own goods." England and France would come of course and scatter the German fleets. England has knocked around the world with her guns a good deal lately, waging wars of commerce with little states and forcing them to buy of her. She has never tried this on the United States because we are too big. But here is a plan that will enable her to fight for our trade in a roundabout way, a sort of "whipping the devil over the stump." If Germany and England should secretly enter into a combination to force this obligation upon us, they would hold us at their mercy. A nation that once acknowledges to the world its helplessness and accepts England as its defender against other great powers would find it difficult to escape from the condition of thraldom in which it had placed itself. England's guns would be even more effective for protecting her trade with the United States after the blockade had been lifted than while the guns of Germany were pointing at our shores.

Perhaps the workingmen of the country would like to consider the matter. If they do not like to assist in the hazardous work of defending the country from a German blockade, they can be relieved from that duty by simply consenting to give England our trade and to have their own employments destroyed. Possibly some of them may conclude that national honor, their own manhood, citizenship, the right to labor, are not worth the cost if they must be fought for. Perhaps they would prefer to have the Union dissolved and the several states take the old position of colonies and dependencies of Great Britain. There may be such workingmen, but if so, they are probably Democrats of the Cleveland and Bayard pattern.

We look confidently for a different settlement of this little misunderstanding with Germany by the new administration. Great Britain and France will not be called on to fight for us during the next four years at least.

WHERE CLEVELAND'S GANG IS DESPISED.

The Troy Telegram, noticing the announcement that Cleveland, Lamont and Fairchild are going to Cuba, advises them to continue their journey till they reach England. There they will be received with open arms, as "those who worked so faithfully to prostrate our industries for the benefit of the English manufacturers." The Queen is expected to confer on them the order of the Knight of the Garter, and a due sense of gratitude may induce Parliament to vote every one of them a pension for life. These favors are predicted because they "despise and hate everything American." And in conclusion the Telegram prays God to "forbid that this country should ever be cursed again by such an administration."

Mr. Cleveland is learning just now what the verdict of impartial history is likely to be upon his free trade policy. The Telegram is published in a manufacturing city, which has felt and is still feeling the paralysis caused by the President's message and the long menace held over the country by the Mills bill. There is no partisanship in the Telegram; it only seeks to reflect the interests of its constituency. Rensselaer county, which gave a Democratic majority of 3,144 in 1887, turned around and gave Harrison 309 majority. Cohoes, affected by similar influence, changed its Democratic majority of 266 in 1887 to 366 for Harrison in 1888. Watervliet, which includes the large manufacturing villages of West Troy and Green Island, changed its Democratic majority of 398 to one for Harrison of 202. Waterford raised its Republican majority from 160 to 365 and Lansingburg from 581 to 976. These places all lie adjacent to Troy, whose Democratic majority fell from 3,269 to 1,804. The Telegram has therefore the backing of its manufacturing constituency in its attack on the late administration. When it prays for deliverance from the danger of another such administration, it only gives expression to the invocation of 100,000 working people.

Perhaps it is hardly necessary, however, for all representatives of labor to give utterance to all the bitterness they feel. The policy that sat like a heavy nightmare upon our industries for four years is dead, and may as well be given a decent burial. Its ghost can never rise to haunt the objects of its persecution. When Congress meets there will be set in operation an American policy. When increased tariff duties check the flood of foreign importations, and the surplus goods being poured into this country in anticipation of high duties are sold off, then there will be a clear field at home for American manufactures. We hope Mr. Cleveland and his companions will visit England and remain long enough to study the effect of free trade upon industry there. If they do this they will become much better Americans than they showed themselves to be while in office.

WEST VIRGINIA POLITICS.

As was to be expected, the Democratic Supreme Court of West Virginia decides against Senator Carr's claims as Governor, and allows Wilson to continue in office. This serves Carr right. His vote, if he had joined the Republicans, would have made Goff Governor and elected him Senator. This would have carried himself into the Governorship with an unclouded title. But he accepted an election to the chair of the Senate from the Democrats after having made a bargain with Wilson that the latter should resign in favor of Carr, who would then appoint him to the Senate. The conditions of this bargain forced Carr to vote for Kenna, whose election spoiled the program. There was then no Senatorship for Wilson, and he concluded to keep the office that he held. Now the court confirms him in that office, and Carr is "in the soup."

We notice that Gen. Goff, who is the real Governor elect of the state, has started for Washington. He permits the statement to be published that he will make a determined fight for his rights before the Legislature. But the Legislature holds only biennial sessions, and cannot meet again till January, 1891, unless Wilson calls it together. But even then he can hardly rely upon the honor of a body that refused to perform its constitutional duty of counting the vote because the count would make him Governor. His record is not stained by any deals or dickers, as is Carr's. But he should have gone to Washington before submitting his case to the decision of a partisan and scoundrelly court. He had taken the oath of office, and he should have proceeded at once to discharge its duties. Then if he found it necessary he could have carried to Washington the evidence of his election and called upon the federal administration to sustain him. He bore up nobly to the end, but failed at the critical moment. The federal government can hardly establish him in the office now, neither can it place him in a position that would take him out of the contest for the Governorship. He must wait two years and then engage in a fight that is sure to end in defeat, unless a Republican clean sweep in the Congressional districts in 1890 frightens the scoundrels into decency.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Jeff Davis no longer enjoys the distinction of being the only living Democratic ex-President. There are two of them now.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The real reason why Tom Platt didn't get into the Cabinet was because Jerry Rusk was to go there. The President objects to Tom and Jerry.—Boston Herald.

Lawyer Cleveland ought to have no difficulty in living within his income, as he already has begun a career of boarding 'round at various banqueting tables.—Buffalo Express.

New Hampshire has "sat down on" prohibition. The sturdy voters of the granite state don't believe in substituting sham for substance. A stringent high-license law will probably be next in order.—Troy Times.

The Democratic office-holder who raises the point that he is discharging the duties of his post faithfully, raises the pertinent question how he comes in the place at all when its duties were being discharged by just as good a man four years ago.—Philadelphia Press.

The new Mayor of Boston insists on a trial in that municipality of the Philadelphia plan of "pay as you go." He is on the right track. It is at times troublesome to make the taxpayer "go" fast enough for the needed pace of improvement; but it is better, despite all drawbacks, to live within the city income.—Philadelphia Record.

The true philosopher can extract the sweets of consolation from the sting of apparent defeat. President Lincoln informed a disappointed applicant who had learned the Spanish language in the expectation of receiving a diplomatic appointment that he still had a very good thing in being able to read Don Quixote in the original.—Providence Journal.

There is some curiosity touching the cause of an Arab emigration to the United States which has begun and is continuing. A newspaper suggests that the Arabs are attracted by the deserts of the Southwest. We expect that some one will say next that they are going to Albany, charmed by the fine opportunity there to "silently steal away."—Syracuse Standard.

A young man who only a few years ago was one of the best paid and most competent clerks in this city was arrested last week for vagrancy. Whisky and riotous living were his ruin. He is now without home or friends or respect, and sleeps, frequently, at the police station. He was one of those drinkers who can stop when they want to, but who never want to stop until it is too late.—Ithaca Journal.

It cannot be denied that the Republican future is brighter to-day than it has been for many years. The party is in absolute control of all the branches of government, and the admission of four new Republican states will soon give a new increment of strength to the party, while the new apportionment based on the census of 1890 will still further increase the Republican advantage.—Atlanta Constitution, Dem.

There is too much talk about the purchasable character of the Southern Negro as a reason why he is not and ought not to be allowed to vote, and it is very cheap talk. Whisky costs less than guns and ammunition, and if the Southern Negro vote could be bought for a glass of whisky it would be, and it would go to swell the Democratic majorities of the "Solid South."—Brooklyn Standard-Union.

Is ANY "FLOWER BORN TO BLUSH UNSEEN?"

The old wives tell us "that blushing is virtue's livery." But, alas! to many a maiden, whose soul is purity itself, has been denied the gracious privilege of wearing the delicate crimson; and all because her skin is covered with blotches, pimples, yellow "liver spots," and other discolorations. Who can tell how such a maiden loathes the very sight of herself, or who shall intrude upon her as she weeps bitter tears over her uncomely appearance? Thrice unhappy she, if by the use of cosmetics, she shall seek to hide her wretched complexion. But if she will use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, to regulate the liver and purify the blood of all poisonous humors, she will find that her "flesh shall come again like unto the flesh of a little child." It cures scrofula, tetter, salt-rheum, pimples, blotches, eruptions, and all skin diseases. Druggists.

Bad blood causes dyspepsia and dyspepsia reacts by causing bad blood. So both go on, growing worse, until the whole system is poisoned. The surest means of relief for the victim is a thorough and persistent course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

COMMON AIR.

The breath of life is conveyed to every part of the human lungs by means of a system of fine vessels called the bronchial tubes. When these are clogged up by an accumulation of mucous, so that breathing is very difficult, especially after any exertion, a person has the leading symptoms of Asthma or Phthisic. Besides this the tubes are often reduced to much less than their natural diameter by spasmodic contraction; often nearly suffocating the sufferer. Whether the case is of long standing or not. Dr. David Kennedy's Cherry Balsam is the most efficacious known remedy. It at once loosens the mucous matter, and causes it to be ejected by a free and easy expectoration. The Balsam in such cases should be taken in larger doses than for a common Cough, and no harm is done if some vomiting results. Take particular notice that if the disease is complicated with a dyspeptic state of the stomach Kennedy's Favorite Remedy must be used to correct the digestion. The case must be very severe that will not rapidly improve under this treatment.

100,000 PEOPLE PERISH!

More than 100,000 persons annually die in this country from Consumption, which is but the child of Catarrh. $500 reward is offered by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy for a case of Catarrh which they cannot cure. The Remedy is sold by druggists; 50 cents.

★ BRIGHT'S DISEASE. ★

A Ten-Year-Old Child Saved After the Failure of Four Physicians.

My little girl, ten years of age, was taken sick in March, 1888, with scarlet fever. When recovering she took a severe cold, which developed Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Her ankles, feet and eyes were terribly swollen, she had a burning fever, and all the symptoms of an aggravated case of Bright's Disease. Four of our best physicians attended her, but without success, and

Her Life was Despaired of.

But a mother's love and prayers surmount all difficulties, and I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y. This was a last resort, and I hoped, although my ittle daughter's case was a very severe one, that the Favorite Remedy would do for her what it had done for others whose condition had not been, seemingly, as hopeless. How happy I am that I determined upon this course—for an improvement was at once perceptible. The fever left her—her appetite improved—she gained six pounds in a short time, and one by one the well known and dreaded symptoms of the disease left her. Words fail to express my gratitude and I cannot too earnestly recommend he Favorite Remedy. It was and is due entirely to the Favorite Remedy, which was the only medicine taken after her case was abandoned by the physicians.

Mrs. Laura A. Kempton, West Rutland, Vermont.

The diseases that follow Scarlet Fever, Measles, Diphtheria and various other complaints often leave behind them sequellas of the most obstinate and dangerous character. To expel all traces of such disorders, tone up the various organs, and fill the veins with pure and nutritious blood, use

THE "OLD SETTLER" AGAIN.

HE TELLS OF AN EXPERIENCE HE HAD IN NEW-YORK CITY.

Met a Bunco Steerer, was Arrested and Brought Into Court, where He Recognized the Judge as an Old Friend —Given Three Months.

"Good morning, 'Squire," said the Major to Marlborough's "Old Settler," as he whittled on a piece of stick in the sunlight, near the Post-Office, in that village, on Tuesday forenoon. "How d' yer come outen your trip ter York?" continued the Major.

"We'al, Major," replied the 'Squire, beckoning to his friend. "Come over here 'an I'll tell you. York is a big town, ain't it, Major? Give us a chaw of 'marnen dew,' Major, an' I'll tell you a bit of my 'sperience sine I have been away. 'Twer in '48 ther last time I were in York, and I'll be 'cussed to harry' ef times haint changed 'siderable, Major. Yes, they hes. Say, you 'member when you and me went down on ther 'Victory'?"

"'Member it, well, er, I kindy reckon I do," replied the Major. "Thet's something I'll never fergit, 'Squire, never."

"Well, as I was a-sayen, I hev hed some of ther allfiredest 'speriences since I were down ther in York what I hev' ever hed in my life. One day, es I was a walken out on ther 'highway' what leads down to ther Post-Office in York, I was tooken by the arm by a man who called me Mr. Caldwin. Says he, 'You looker much like father.' 'Father,' says I. 'Yep, father. You must know father. Why, father, he was an old friend of yours,' says he. Ther way that man went on was er caution. Says I ter myself, 'I'll let this here fool go on a bit, an' see how he acts when he fetches up.' 'Sarah Jane' said ter me 'fore I went out ther house ter be a bit kerful, 'case these ere men always was a tryen to haul in old countrymen like me. This kinder put me on ther lookout. Just es he was a gitten in his funny work I hauled off an' give him a humper right under the left eye. Quicker an' a wink there was a crowd of fellers around us. 'Who are you?' said er man. 'I'll be gosh-darned ef I'm es green es I look,' says I. 'I'm from Marlberry on the Hudson River, 70 miles or thereabout from this very town, an' I kin lick the daylites outen any young 'flicker' thet ever fluked bouten here ef I am an old hayseed,' says I. Just then, Major, the feller rized to his feet and come ter me agin. This made me all tarnation mad. I squared myself fer him and was about letten it go fer his eye glasses, when a constable grabbed me from behind and held my hands, so es I could not strike out. Then I did git mad. I jist got up and I says, squaren off, 'I hev licked 10 constables like you in a day, up in Marlberry, an ef you don't let up on me fer a minute I'll knock yer gosh darned brass buttons clean over'n that there field over there.' Gosh, Major, I hed no more an sed that an I was tooken in quickerin 'Ose' Mackey ken drive up ther hill from ther depot. Ther constable said I were drunk an he took me ter jail. The other feller, the feller what I hed licked, he came up ter me an says, 'Old man, I kin git yer off fer $5.' 'You steer clear from me, young flicker, or I'll smash yer in ther 'bosis,' says I. Jest then ther constable grabbed ther feller and chained him fast ter me. Oh how that duffer did beg fer to git away, but ther constable held on ter him like death. When we got ter the Court House we was tookin afore the Jedge. Just as soon as I sot eyes on the Jedge, I says, 'I know him.' Who do yer suppose was Jedge, Major; Why 'Case Dutcher,' old boy, 'Case' what use ter come up ter see Matilda, my oldest sister, when we lived in Barnegat. Jest as soon as he sot eyes on me he said, 'Officer what—why what on 'arth are you doin' here, 'Square Popple-ton, chained fast ter that feller?' 'How de do, old friend,' says I. 'How long hev you been here, Jedge Dutcher, I thot you wus outen Kalaforny.' 'But, officer, how's this here?' says the Jedge. 'I'll tell you 'Case,' says I, so I up an told him the circumstances. 'You are discharged,' said Case, 'an I'll give that other feller three months. Cum up on ther bench,' says Case. So I went up and sot down beside him fer over two hours. Great place that there Perleece Court in York, Major. I tell you a man hes got ter be pritty gosh darned smart what does like Case Dutcher."

"'Twas a narrer 'scape fer you, waren't it, 'Squire?"

"Well, I'll bet my blue buttons, 'twas Major. When I went over an' told mother and Sarah Jane what'd 'curred, they almost hed a couniption fit. Why, ther way they went on 'twas a caution. They said, after this, I could not go out alone. But I reckon I'm of age: says I, 'an' ef I can't walk on ther roads in York alone I kin up hum Marlberry.' This fixed them. I hev got ter go over ter ther house, now Major. Come over on Sunday and bring 'Tilda' 'long wiih you. I'll make yer laugh when I tell you what a time we hed up in Central Park, wif ther animals."

"All right, 'Squire, ef 'Tilda' don't go up ter Perkeepsey, Sunday, we'll be over."

A Queer Will.

[From an Exchange.]

Surrogate Tuthill, of Suffolk County, has admitted to probate the will of Richard L. Peters, of Southold, Long Island. The will directs the investment of a sum of money, the income of which will be used in keeping his grave covered with growing flowers. Another request is that a sum be invested at compound interest for 100 years. The principal and interest at the expiration of the time are to be used to erect a monument and celebrate the centennial of his death. His children he restricts to a life interest in his estate. To the Presbyterian Church of Southold he gives $2,000 and to the Methodist Church $1,500. Neither church, however, can receive its bequest until the money has increased to $5,000. It is said that the will may be contested.

Second Largest in World.

[From an Exchange.]

There is a bill before the Legislature to enlarge the area of New-York City, so as to make one City, under one municipal government, of Manhattan Island, Staten Island, all Kings County, Flushing, Newtown and Jamaica, in Queens County, and all of Westchester County. This would give the City an area 10 times larger than it has at present. The City would then be the second largest in the world, its area being about 320 square miles. The present population of this territory is 3,000,000. Within the next 10 years it is estimated it will be over 5,000,000. London, the largest City in the world, has an area of 600 square miles and a population of 5,000,000.

Snow Birds' Reunion.

[From the Newburgh Register.]

W. H. Coldwell did not attend the reunion of the Snow Birds at Hastings last evening, owing to his feeble condition resulting from his recent long illness. The Snow Birds consist of 37 gentlemen and ladies who were snow-bound during the blizzard of 1888 on a Hudson River train at Dobbs Ferry, and walked five miles to the Beaver Hotel at Hastings for shelter and comfort. They agreed to meet annually to celebrate the event, and Mr. Coldwell was chosen President of the Snow Birds.

A Hunter's Mishap.

[From the Roxbury Times.]

Tuesday morning, while Richard Sherwood was hunting, he attempted to draw a charge of small shot from his gun in order to load for larger game, and while holding his hand over the muzzle, in some manner, the cap which he had neglected to remove, exploded, and the entire charge passed through the palm of his right hand, making a hole nearly an inch in diameter. The wound was dressed by Dr. Ellis, and is doing as well as can be expected.

An Important Announcement

About six weeks ago, while at business, I was suddenly attacked with excruciating pains in my feet, knees and hands. So severe the attack that I took my bed immediately, and in two or three days my joints were swollen to almost double their natural size, and sleep was driven from me. After suffering the most excruciating pain for a week, using liniment and various other remedies, a friend who sympathized with my helpless condition said to me: "Why don't you get Swift's Specific and use it. I will guarantee a cure and if it does not the medicine shall cost you nothing."

I at once secured the S. S. S., and after using i. the first day, had a quiet night and refreshing sleept In a week I felt greatly benefitted. In three weeks I could sit up and walk about the room, and after using six bottles I was out and able to go to business. Since then I have been regularly at my post of duty, and stand on my feet from nine to ten hours a day, and am entirely free from pain. These are the plain and simple facts in my case, and I will cheerfully answer all inquries relative thereto, either in person or by mail. THOMAS MARKILLIE.

OUR LITTLE SON.

Four years old, afflicted with a painful skin disease. Six doctors tried to cure him; all Failed. Got worse and worse. Completely cured by one set of Cuticura Remedies, costing $1.75.

Our little son will be four years of age on the 25th instant. In May, 1885, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician, who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be hives in an aggravated form, became larger in blotches, and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, strong liniments, etc. Finally, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily getting worse and worse, until about the 20th of last July, when we began to give him Cuticura Resolvent internally, and the Cuticura, and Cuticura Soap externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him only one dose of the Resolvent about every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady. In all we used less than one-half of a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a little less than one box of Cuticura, and only one cake of Cuticura Soap.

Choking Catarrh.

Have you awaked from a disturbed sleep with all the horrible sensation of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your tightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debilitiy that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter? What a depressing influence it exerts upon the mind, clouding the memory and filling the head with pains and strange noises! How difficult it is to rid the nasal passages, throat and lungs of this poisonous mucus all can testify who are afflicted with catarrh. How difficult to protect the system against its further progress towards the lungs, liver and kidneys, all physicians will admit. It is a terrible disease, and cries out for relief and cure.

The remarkable curative powers, when all other remedies utterly fail, of Sanford's Radical Cure, are attested by thousands who gratefully recommend it to fellow-sufferers. No statement is made regarding it that cannot be substantiated by the most respectable and reliable references.

Each packet contains one bottle of Radical Cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent, and an Improved Inhaler, with treatise and directions, and is sold by all druggists for $1.00.

★ BRIGHT'S DISEASE. ★

A Ten-Year-Old Child Saved After the Failure of Four Physicians.

My little girl, ten years of age, was taken sick in March, 1888, with scarlet fever. When recovering she took a severe cold, which developed Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Her ankles, feet and eyes were terribly swollen, she had a burning fever, and all the symptoms of an aggravated case of Bright's Disease. Four of our best physicians attended her, but without success, and

Her Life was Despaired of.

But a mother's love and prayers surmount all difficulties, and I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y. This was a last resort, and I hoped, although my ittle daughter's case was a very severe one, that the Favorite Remedy would do for her what it had done for others whose condition had not been, seemingly, as hopeless. How happy I am that I determined upon this course—for an improvement was at once perceptible. The fever left her—her appetite improved—she gained six pounds in a short time, and one by one the well known and dreaded symptoms of the disease left her. Words fail to express my gratitude and I cannot too earnestly recommend he Favorite Remedy. It was and is due entirely to the Favorite Remedy, which was the only medicine taken after her case was abandoned by the physicians.

Mrs. Laura A. Kempton, West Rutland, Vermont.

The diseases that follow Scarlet Fever, Measles, Diphtheria and various other complaints often leave behind them sequellas of the most obstinate and dangerous character. To expel all traces of such disorders, tone up the various organs, and fill the veins with pure and nutritious blood, use

THE "OLD SETTLER" AGAIN.

HE TELLS OF AN EXPERIENCE HE HAD IN NEW-YORK CITY.

Met a Bunco Steerer, was Arrested and Brought Into Court, where He Recognized the Judge as an Old Friend —Given Three Months.

"Good morning, 'Squire," said the Major to Marlborough's "Old Settler," as he whittled on a piece of stick in the sunlight, near the Post-Office, in that village, on Tuesday forenoon. "How d' yer come outen your trip ter York?" continued the Major.

"We'al, Major," replied the 'Squire, beckoning to his friend. "Come over here 'an I'll tell you. York is a big town, ain't it, Major? Give us a chaw of 'marnen dew,' Major, an' I'll tell you a bit of my 'sperience sine I have been away. 'Twer in '48 ther last time I were in York, and I'll be 'cussed to harry' ef times haint changed 'siderable, Major. Yes, they hes. Say, you 'member when you and me went down on ther 'Victory'?"

"'Member it, well, er, I kindy reckon I do," replied the Major. "Thet's something I'll never fergit, 'Squire, never."

"Well, as I was a-sayen, I hev hed some of ther allfiredest 'speriences since I were down ther in York what I hev' ever hed in my life. One day, es I was a walken out on ther 'highway' what leads down to ther Post-Office in York, I was tooken by the arm by a man who called me Mr. Caldwin. Says he, 'You looker much like father.' 'Father,' says I. 'Yep, father. You must know father. Why, father, he was an old friend of yours,' says he. Ther way that man went on was er caution. Says I ter myself, 'I'll let this here fool go on a bit, an' see how he acts when he fetches up.' 'Sarah Jane' said ter me 'fore I went out ther house ter be a bit kerful, 'case these ere men always was a tryen to haul in old countrymen like me. This kinder put me on ther lookout. Just es he was a gitten in his funny work I hauled off an' give him a humper right under the left eye. Quicker an' a wink there was a crowd of fellers around us. 'Who are you?' said er man. 'I'll be gosh-darned ef I'm es green es I look,' says I. 'I'm from Marlberry on the Hudson River, 70 miles or thereabout from this very town, an' I kin lick the daylites outen any young 'flicker' thet ever fluked bouten here ef I am an old hayseed,' says I. Just then, Major, the feller rized to his feet and come ter me agin. This made me all tarnation mad. I squared myself fer him and was about letten it go fer his eye glasses, when a constable grabbed me from behind and held my hands, so es I could not strike out. Then I did git mad. I jist got up and I says, squaren off, 'I hev licked 10 constables like you in a day, up in Marlberry, an ef you don't let up on me fer a minute I'll knock yer gosh darned brass buttons clean over'n that there field over there.' Gosh, Major, I hed no more an sed that an I was tooken in quickerin 'Ose' Mackey ken drive up ther hill from ther depot. Ther constable said I were drunk an he took me ter jail. The other feller, the feller what I hed licked, he came up ter me an says, 'Old man, I kin git yer off fer $5.' 'You steer clear from me, young flicker, or I'll smash yer in ther 'bosis,' says I. Jest then ther constable grabbed ther feller and chained him fast ter me. Oh how that duffer did beg fer to git away, but ther constable held on ter him like death. When we got ter the Court House we was tookin afore the Jedge. Just as soon as I sot eyes on the Jedge, I says, 'I know him.' Who do yer suppose was Jedge, Major; Why 'Case Dutcher,' old boy, 'Case' what use ter come up ter see Matilda, my oldest sister, when we lived in Barnegat. Jest as soon as he sot eyes on me he said, 'Officer what—why what on 'arth are you doin' here, 'Square Poppleton, chained fast ter that feller?' 'How de do, old friend,' says I. 'How long hev you been here, Jedge Dutcher, I thot you wus outen Kalafony.' 'But, officer, how's this here?' says the Jedge. 'I'll tell you 'Case,' says I, so I up an told him the circumstances. 'You are discharged,' said Case, 'an I'll give that other feller three months. Cum up on ther bench,' says Case. So I went up and sot down beside him fer over two hours. Great place that there Perleece Court in York, Major. I tell you a man hes got ter be pritty gosh darned smart what does like Case Dutcher."

"Well, I'll bet my blue buttons, 'twas Major. When I went over an' told mother and Sarah Jane what'd 'curred, they almost hed a couniption fit. Why, ther way they went on 'twas a caution. They said, after this, I could not go out alone. But I reckon I'm of age; says I, 'an' ef I can't walk on ther roads in York alone I kin up hum Marlberry.' This fixed them. I hev got ter go over ter ther house, now Major. Come over on Sunday and bring 'Tilda' 'long wiih you. I'll make yer laugh when I tell you what a time we hed up in Central Park, wif ther animals."

"All right, 'Squire, ef 'Tilda' don't go up ter Perkeepsey, Sunday, we'll be over."

A Queer Will.

[From an Exchange.]

Surrogate Tuthill, of Suffolk County, has admitted to probate the will of Richard L. Peters, of Southold, Long Island. The will directs the investment of a sum of money, the income of which will be used in keeping his grave covered with growing flowers. Another request is that a sum be invested at compound interest for 100 years. The principal and interest at the expiration of the time are to be used to erect a monument and celebrate the centennial of his death. His children he restricts to a life interest in his estate. To the Presbyterian Church of Southold he gives $2,000 and to the Methodist Church $1,500. Neither church, however, can receive its bequest until the money has increased to $5,000. It is said that the will may be contested.

Second Largest in World.

[From an Exchange.]

There is a bill before the Legislature to enlarge the area of New-York City, so as to make one City, under one municipal government, of Manhattan Island, Staten Island, all Kings County, Flushing, Newtown and Jamaica, in Queens County, and all of Westchester County. This would give the City an area 10 times larger than it has at present. The City would then be the second largest in the world, its area being about 320 square miles. The present population of this territory is 3,000,000. Within the next 10 years it is estimated it will be over 5,000,000. London, the largest City in the world, has an area of 600 square miles and a population of 5,000,000.

Snow Birds' Reunion.

[From the Newburgh Register.]

W. H. Coldwell did not attend the reunion of the Snow Birds at Hastings last evening, owing to his feeble condition resulting from his recent long illness. The Snow Birds consist of 37 gentlemen and ladies who were snow-bound during the blizzard of 1888 on a Hudson River train at Dobbs Ferry, and walked five miles to the Beaver Hotel at Hastings for shelter and comfort. They agreed to meet annually to celebrate the event, and Mr. Coldwell was chosen President of the Snow Birds.

A Hunter's Mishap.

[From the Roxbury Times.]

Tuesday morning, while Richard Sherwood was hunting, he attempted to draw a charge of small shot from his gun in order to load for larger game, and while holding his hand over the muzzle, in some manner, the cap which he had neglected to remove, exploded, and the entire charge passed through the palm of his right hand, making a hole nearly an inch in diameter. The wound was dressed by Dr. Ellis, and is doing as well as can be expected.

An Important Announcement

About six weeks ago, while at business, I was suddenly attacked with excruciating pains in my feet, knees and hands. So severe the attack that I took my bed immediately, and in two or three days my joints were swollen to almost double their natural size, and sleep was driven from me. After suffering the most excruciating pain for a week, using liniment and various other remedies, a friend who sympathized with my helpless condition said to me: "Why don't you get Swift's Specific and use it. I will guarantee a cure and if it does not the medicine shall cost you nothing."

I at once secured the S. S. S., and after using i. the first day, had a quiet night and refreshing sleept In a week I felt greatly benefitted. In three weeks I could sit up and walk about the room, and after using six bottles I was out and able to go to business. Since then I have been regularly at my post of duty, and stand on my feet from nine to ten hours a day, and am entirely free from pain. These are the plain and simple facts in my case, and I will cheerfully answer all inquries relative thereto, either in person or by mail. THOMAS MARKILLIE. 11 W. 18th-street, New-York City.

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—I have warded off a severe attack of rheumatism by a timely resort to Swift's Specific. OUR LITTLE SON.

Four years old, afflicted with a painful skin disease. Six doctors tried to cure him; all Failed. Got worse and worse. Completely cured by one set of Cuticura Remedies, costing $1.75.

Our little son will be four years of age on the 25th instant. In May, 1885, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician, who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be hives in an aggravated form, became larger in blotches, and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, strong liniments, etc. Finally, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily getting worse and worse, until about the 20th of last July, when we began to give him Cuticura Resolvent internally, and the Cuticura, and Cuticura Soap externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him only one dose of the Resolvent about every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady. In all we used less than one-half of a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a little less than one box of Cuticura, and only one cake of Cuticura Soap.

SCROFULOUS HUMORS.

Last spring I was very sick, being covered with some kind of scrofula. The doctors could not help me. I was advised to try Cuticura Resolvent. I did so, and in a day I grew better and better, until I am as well as ever. I thank you for it very much, and would like to have it told to the public.

Choking Catarrh.

Have you awaked from a disturbed sleep with all the horrible sensation of an assassin clutching your throat and pressing the life-breath from your tightened chest? Have you noticed the languor and debility that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter? What a depressing influence it exerts upon the mind, clouding the memory and filling the head with pains and strange noises! How difficult it is to rid the nasal passages, throat and lungs of this poisonous mucus all can testify who are afflicted with catarrh. How difficult to protect the system against its further progress towards the lungs, liver and kidneys, all physicians will admit. It is a terrible disease, and cries out for relief and cure.

The remarkable curative powers, when all other remedies utterly fail, of Sanford's Radical Cure, are attested by thousands who gratefully recommend it to fellow-sufferers. No statement is made regarding it that cannot be substantiated by the most respectable and reliable references.

Each packet contains one bottle of Radical Cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent, and an Improved Inhaler, with treatise and directions, and is sold by all druggists for $1.00.

Later Mr. VanGaasbeek became connected with the Union Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Maine, and was elected Assistant Secretary of the Company. His health failing in 1880 he returned to Kingston. Mr. VanGaasbeek was married to Mary Booth, daughter of Nathaniel Booth, of Wilbur, January 1, 1883. A daughter, the issue of the marriage, died in 1885. He became a member of the First Reformed Church when he was 14 years old. A genial and delightful companion, his generous and kindly nature won for him many friends. His death in the prime of his manhood is deeply lamented. The body will be brought to Kingston for burial.

IN THE ULSTER COUNTY COURT.

Verdict Rendered—About a Sewing Machine—Circuit Court—Partition Case.

In Ulster County Court, in session in Kingston, the jury in the case of Hayes vs. Cornish et al. rendered a verdict of $92 for plaintiff.

No. 9, Catherine McLaughlin vs. Rowland C. Bowne, was tried. The jury failed to agree. The jurors were discharged. The facts shown in the case were that the defendant went, in company with an officer, to the house of a Mrs. McLaughlin, on Abruyn-avenue, Kingston, to get a sewing machine, which he claimed had not been paid for. Mrs. McLaughlin averred that the machine was hers, and while she tried to prevent Bowne from taking it he took hold of her by the wrist. Plaintiff claimed she was injured to the extent of $500. The defense was that defendant merely went there to assist the officer, and what he did was for that purpose. Defendant claimed that he did not use force sufficient to do injury. This case was tried at a former County Court. The jury at that time failed to agree.

The Court adjourned until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

CIRCUIT COURT.

In Circuit Court, Kingston, the case of William C. Young vs. The West Shore and New-York Central Railroad was ordered to stand over until April 2, to be heard by consent at Special Term at Albany.

M. J. Madden vs. Frederick Poole, judgment on foreclosure of mortgage ordered.

The case of Celia B. O'Reilly vs. William Hutton and others was tried. The action was brought by Mrs. O'Reilly to restrain the sale of real estate under execution, claiming that the defendants had agreed to wait before enforcing judgment until the determination of an action in the Court of Appeals in reference to the Union-avenue assessments. The case will be submitted at the Albany Special Term before May 1, the day to be named by counsel.

PARTITION CASE.

A hearing was had yesterday afternoon in Kingston in the partition case of Frederick Happy against Elizabeth Happy et al. The property which the plaintiff asks to have partitioned, is a farm and wood land formerly owned by Jacob Happy, town of Woodstock, which contains 938 acres. A number of witnesses testified that its value is from $5,000 to $5,500. At the close of this testimony the case was adjourned to March 21.

A GLOWING OUTLOOK REPORTED.

Successful Fruit Season Promised in Southern Ulster—Large Yield.

Southern Ulster fruit-growers report that the forthcoming fruit season gives promise of being one of the most successful of any heretofore. Fruit buds are alive and indications point to a large yield of every variety of fruit cultivated in Ulster County. Usually, at this season of the year, painstaking horticulturists make an examination of every fruit-bearing vine and tree upon their farms. This is done, that they may know the possible result of the fruiting season. Should a vine be alive, even to the "tips," and the leaf and fruit buds show a healthy growth, an accurate opinion can be formed as to the success of the fruit yield, barring, of course, any danger that may arise from a change of temperature. The condition of the peach tree—a particularly uncertain fruit-bearing tree—gives much encouragement to growers who are fortunate in having a peach orchard on their farms. The peach crop, growers say, will be enormous, and fully equal to any yield of that fruit harvested between Catskill and Cornwall. Thus far the prospects are bright for the men who do much and who have done much to raise the profession of fruit-culture to its present high standard.

DESCRIPTION OF THE UNKNOWN MAN

Who Was Found in Creek, at Catskill, on Wednesday.

The body of the unknown man found at Burgett's Creek, Catskill, on Wednesday, is thus described: The dead man probably was a laborer. Was five feet eight or nine inches in height, weighing about 160 pounds, and apparently was about 40 years old. His hair, which was short cut, was light-brown, as also a short moustache. He was dressed in dark trousers of a small plaid pattern fastened at the waist with a leather strap; vest of same material as trousers; grey undershirt, checked woolen outer shirt; white cotton socks, Congress gaiters; no coat or hat. There was nothing on the body to identify it, the pockets yielding only a fine comb and a match. The left leg was cut nearly off, between the knee and hip. Another long, deep, diagonal cut in the thigh extended into the groin. It looks as though the man had been run over by the cars.

What State Engineer Says.

The report of the State Engineer, made recently, says: "Under the provisions of the act to improve the Hudson River between Troy and Coxsackie, a large amount of work has been done by the Superintendent of Public Works, amounting to 196,414 1-10 cubic yards of material dredged and removed from the channel of the River. The dikes erected a number of years ago by the United States Government are in many places in need of immediate repair. The expenditure by the general government of a comparatively moderate amount in the repair of these dikes would prevent the necessity for their entire renewal, which will certainly otherwise become necessary very soon, and would also greatly lessen the formation of the bars, on the removal of which the State annually has to expend a large amount of money."

"No Cause of Action."

Recently a Kingston lawyer asked a country Justice:

"Well, what became of that suit against ——, tried before you?"

Country Justice—"O! I couldn't make head nor tail to it after the lawyers got through."

"What did you do?"

"Why, I just charged the jury, and told them if they knew anything about the case they knew more than I did, and then I sent them out to deliberate."

"What did the jury do?"

"O! they found 'No cause of action.'"

IN THE LOCAL FIELD OF EDUCATION.

Questions Asked Candidates for Certificates —New School House.

A new school house will soon be built at Bloomville, Delaware County.

At the examination held for School Commissioners' certificates, in Ulster Academy, Rondout, recently, 13 candidates were examined for first grade certificates, and six for second grade. The following are some of the questions the applicants were called upon to answer:

What effect on the heart's action has the excessive use of tobacco by adults?

[From an Exchange.]

A special committee of the New-York Board of Education has prepared a report in favor of abolishing the present marking system in public schools, substituting for it the teacher's judgment as to the record of proficiency to which each pupil may be entitled. To commit to memory the pages of a text-book and repeat the facts with more or less accuracy can neither stimulate application nor awaken interest in the young mind. Nor is it just to the teacher that the question of his or her efficiency should depend, not upon the real progress of the pupil, but upon a capacity for remembering facts, without regard to practical results. The true object of education cannot be attained by converting the mind into a mere knowledge-box, with carefully-labeled compartments, the contents of which are for use on examination day only.

A boy named Leon Austin was arraigned before Recorder Hussey to-day, charged with having struck with a stone a child of one William Hoffman, in Ponckhockie, yesterday. Being under nine years of age the lad was reprimanded and the complaint withdrawn.

An old man named Thomas Furlong was arraigned in Recorder's Court, this City, this forenoon, charged with theft. The complainant was one Frank Stephens, who alleged that in February, 1883, Furlong boarded with him when the West Shore tunnel at Wilbur was being built, and that Furlong, in his —Stephens—absence stole from his trunk clothing and about $140 in money. A warrant was issued at the time, but Furlong disappeared. Officer Glennon arrested the accused man yesterday. Owing to the non-appearance of Stephens, the prisoner was discharged, subject, however, to arrest when the complainant desires to press the charge.

Appearances are Often Deceiving.

A dispatch from Middletown to the New-York Times says: On February 15 last William Egan, aged about 50 years, was killed while shovelling in a cut on the new Orange County Railroad, now building near Campbell Hall. He was a stranger to his fellow-laborers, having been employed there only a few days. He was poorly clothed and apparently in abject poverty. No close search of the remains were made, and the body was buried, at the cost of the County, in the County Alms House graveyard. It now appears that the deceased had a sister, a Mrs. E. Corcoran, living at 75 Carroll-street, Brooklyn. By some means she heard of her brother's death, whereupon she wrote to Campbell Hall, inquiring in regard to the circumstances, and also if any valuables were found on his body. On receiving a reply she came on here a day or two ago and caused the body to be exhumed and searched. In a belt around the waist of the dead miser were found $400 in greenbacks and a New-York Savings Bank book showing credits to the amount of over $1,000.

The first boat from here this season will be the Brett, which will be sent down on Monday night, returning on Tuesday. IN THE ULSTER COUNTY COURT.

Verdict Rendered—About a Sewing Machine—Circuit Court—Partition Case.

In Ulster County Court, in session in Kingston, the jury in the case of Hayes vs. Cornish et al. rendered a verdict of $92 for plaintiff.

No. 9, Catherine McLaughlin vs. Rowland C. Bowne, was tried. The jury failed to agree. The jurors were discharged. The facts shown in the case were that the defendant went, in company with an officer, to the house of a Mrs. McLaughlin, on Abruyn-avenue, Kingston, to get a sewing machine, which he claimed had not been paid for. Mrs. McLaughlin averred that the machine was hers, and while she tried to prevent Bowne from taking it he took hold of her by the wrist. Plaintiff claimed she was injured to the extent of $500. The defense was that defendant merely went there to assist the officer, and what he did was for that purpose. Defendant claimed that he did not use force sufficient to do injury. This case was tried at a former County Court. The jury at that time failed to agree.

The Court adjourned until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

CIRCUIT COURT.

In Circuit Court, Kingston, the case of William C. Young vs. The West Shore and New-York Central Railroad was ordered to stand over until April 2, to be heard by consent at Special Term at Albany.

M. J. Madden vs. Frederick Poole, judgment on foreclosure of mortgage ordered.

The case of Celia B. O'Reilly vs. William Hutton and others was tried. The action was brought by Mrs. O'Reilly to restrain the sale of real estate under execution, claiming that the defendants had agreed to wait before enforcing judgment until the determination of an action in the Court of Appeals in reference to the Union-avenue assessments. The case will be submitted at the Albany Special Term before May 1, the day to be named by counsel.

PARTITION CASE.

A hearing was had yesterday afternoon in Kingston in the partition case of Frederick Happy against Elizabeth Happy et al. The property which the plaintiff asks to have partitioned, is a farm and wood land formerly owned by Jacob Happy, town of Woodstock, which contains 938 acres. A number of witnesses testified that its value is from $5,000 to $5,500. At the close of this testimony the case was adjourned to March 21.

A GLOWING OUTLOOK REPORTED.

Successful Fruit Season Promised in Southern Ulster—Large Yield.

Southern Ulster fruit-growers report that the forthcoming fruit season gives promise of being one of the most successful of any heretofore. Fruit buds are alive and indications point to a large yield of every variety of fruit cultivated in Ulster County. Usually, at this season of the year, painstaking horticulturists make an examination of every fruit-bearing vine and tree upon their farms. This is done, that they may know the possible result of the fruiting season. Should a vine be alive, even to the "tips," and the leaf and fruit buds show a healthy growth, an accurate opinion can be formed as to the success of the fruit yield, barring, of course, any danger that may arise from a change of temperature. The condition of the peach tree—a particularly uncertain fruit-bearing tree—gives much encouragement to growers who are fortunate in having a peach orchard on their farms. The peach crop, growers say, will be enormous, and fully equal to any yield of that fruit harvested between Catskill and Cornwall. Thus far the prospects are bright for the men who do much and who have done much to raise the profession of fruit-culture to its present high standard.

DESCRIPTION OF THE UNKNOWN MAN

Who Was Found In Creek, at Catskill, on Wednesday.

The body of the unknown man found at Burgett's Creek, Catskill, on Wednesday, is thus described: The dead man probably was a laborer. Was five feet eight or nine inches in height, weighing about 160 pounds, and apparently was about 40 years old. His hair, which was short cut, was light-brown, as also a short moustache. He was dressed in dark trousers of a small plaid pattern fastened at the waist with a leather strap; vest of same material as trousers; grey undershirt, checked woolen outer shirt; white cotton socks, Congress gaiters; no coat or hat. There was nothing on the body to identify it, the pockets yielding only a fine comb and a match. The left leg was cut nearly off, between the knee and hip. Another long, deep, diagonal cut in the thigh extended into the groin. It looks as though the man had been run over by the cars.

What State Engineer Says.

The report of the State Engineer, made recently, says: "Under the provisions of the act to improve the Hudson River between Troy and Coxsackie, a large amount of work has been done by the Superintendent of Public Works, amounting to 196,414 1-10 cubic yards of material dredged and removed from the channel of the River. The dikes erected a number of years ago by the United States Government are in many places in need of immediate repair. The expenditure by the general government of a comparatively moderate amount in the repair of these dikes would prevent the necessity for their entire renewal, which will certainly otherwise become necessary very soon, and would also greatly lessen the formation of the bars, on the removal of which the State annually has to expend a large amount of money."

"No Cause of Action."

Recently a Kingston lawyer asked a country Justice:

"Well, what became of that suit against ——, tried before you?"

Country Justice—"O! I couldn't make head nor tail to it after the lawyers got through."

"What did you do?"

"Why, I just charged the jury, and told them if they knew anything about the case they knew more than I did, and then I sent them out to deliberate."

"What did the jury do?"

"O! they found 'No cause of action.'"

At the examination held for School Commissioners' certificates, in Ulster Academy, Rondout, recently, 13 candidates were examined for first grade certificates, and six for second grade. The following are some of the questions the applicants were called upon to answer:

[From an Exchange.]

A special committee of the New-York Board of Education has prepared a report in favor of abolishing the present marking system in public schools, substituting for it the teacher's judgment as to the record of proficiency to which each pupil may be entitled. To commit to memory the pages of a text-book and repeat the facts with more or less accuracy can neither stimulate application nor awaken interest in the young mind. Nor is it just to the teacher that the question of his or her efficiency should depend, not upon the real progress of the pupil, but upon a capacity for remembering facts, without regard to practical results. The true object of education cannot be attained by converting the mind into a mere knowledge-box, with carefully-labeled compartments, the contents of which are for use on examination day only.

SOME PHASES OF THE SEAMY SIDE.

A boy named Leon Austin was arraigned before Recorder Hussey to-day, charged with having struck with a stone a child of one William Hoffman, in Ponckhockie, yesterday. Being under nine years of age the lad was reprimanded and the complaint withdrawn.

An old man named Thomas Furlong was arraigned in Recorder's Court, this City, this forenoon, charged with theft. The complainant was one Frank Stephens, who alleged that in February, 1883, Furlong boarded with him when the West Shore tunnel at Wilbur was being built, and that Furlong, in his —Stephens—absence stole from his trunk clothing and about $140 in money. A warrant was issued at the time, but Furlong disapeared. Officer Glennon arrested the accused man yesterday. Owing to the non-appearance of Stephens, the prisoner was discharged, subject, however, to arrest when the complainant desires to press the charge.

Appearances are Often Deceiving.

A dispatch from Middletown to the New-York Times says: On February 15 last William Egan, aged about 50 years, was killed while shovelling in a cut on the new Orange County Railroad, now building near Campbell Hall. He was a stranger to his fellow-laborers, having been employed there only a few days. He was poorly clothed and apparently in abject poverty. No close search of the remains were made, and the body was buried, at the cost of the County, in the County Alms House graveyard. It now appears that the deceased had a sister, a Mrs. E. Corcoran, living at 75 Carroll-street, Brooklyn. By some means she heard of her brother's death, whereupon she wrote to Campbell Hall, inquiring in regard to the circumstances, and also if any valuables were found on his body. On receiving a reply she came on here a day or two ago and caused the body to be exhumed and searched. In a belt around the waist of the dead miser were found $400 in greenbacks and a New-York Savings Bank book showing credits to the amount of over $1,000.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

How politics affect different industries is shown by reports from Washington. Bartenders state that their trade has fallen off one-half, while laundrymen say their business has doubled.

THE widow of Gen. Grant has given $25 to the Confederate Soldiers' Home at Austin, Texas. Col. Grant, in forwarding the gift, says it is sent in memory of Gen. Grant's kindly feelings toward the Southern people.

SPRING is manifest in New Jersey. Blue birds, robins and meadow larks are singing, crocuses are blooming, tulips and hyacinths are bursting their buds, and a frog has been heard in a Ridgewood swamp. Mosquitoes are also nearly ripe.

STEVE BRODIE, the hero of Brooklyn Bridge, is in Rochester teasing the Mayor to let him leap over the Genesee Falls where Sam Patch was killed fifty years ago. Brodie has become such a nuisance that the Mayor will probably let him jump.

SECRETARY TRACY has ordered all the horses on his stock farm at Marshland near Owego to be sold. Among the animals is Mambrino Dudley, whose colts have a record of 2:19¼. Gen. Tracy will give his attention to locomotion by water for the next four years.

REPORTS from the new gold regions in Lower California concerning the presence and absence of gold are conflicting. There is no doubt, however, about the absence of provisions and the hunger of the adventurers. Those who have not yet started should wait a little longer.

GEN. HARRISON has already discovered the secret of successful and unwearisome handshaking. He grasps the caller's hand before the latter is able to get a grip on him. If Mrs. Cleveland had learned this, she would have been saved the many agonizing armaches that were the torture of her White House life.

THE enmity of the New York Sun towards Mr. Cleveland is well understood, and it has good foundations. But there is inexcusable malignity in the act of publishing an old cut of Cleveland as the portrait of Virgil Jackson, the man who was hanged in Utica yesterday. The production by the Utica Observer of a correct likeness of Jackson leaves the Sun without excuse.

JONATHAN L. ADAMS of Macon, Ga., has succeeded in starving himself to death. He had robbed his friends of $70,000 by forgeries, and refused to take food as the only possible atonement for his crimes. He endured the process for twenty-six days, giving way only once, when he ate two oranges and a cake. This sickened him, and he did not yield again. In his sleep he would go through the motions of eating.

POSTMASTER GENERAL WANAMAKER can score a point with his fellow-citizens by restoring the terra-cotta 2-cent stamp to the place it filled so well. We are with the Sun against the "pale, sickly green" thing.—Utica Herald.

We do not want either. What we prefer and are going to get is the one-cent stamp for letter postage, as the Republican party promised in its platform. Mr. Wanamaker will be ready to give it to us as soon as Congress is willing. The bright blue stamp with the kindly face of Ben. Franklin upon it will do.

THE Republican State Senators held a caucus yesterday afternoon and resolved to push the Vedder liquor tax bill. They did not meet with the Assemblymen in caucus last night. This seems to have brought the Assemblymen to their senses, for they appointed a committee to amend the Excise Commission bill. When the committee gets through with the bill the liquor dealers will probably find it less acceptable to them than universal free rum.

A VERY deliberate suicide was Lizzie Barcune of Cohoes. Last Tuesday she called upon an undertaker, selected a beautiful coffin and paid for it. She next purchased a marble vase to be laid on her grave. On Wednesday she started for her work, and in a little while her hat and wraps were found on the canal bank. Yesterday the water of the canal was drawn out, and her body recovered. Her brother was accidentally drowned four years ago, and her mother had recently died.

SINCE Gov. Hill has shown his hand as a framer of ballot reform bills for the Legislature, we hope he will continue to send them in. A much needed reform was suggested by one of the Governor's "hand-me-down" Judges last fall, in his complaint that Democratic votes had suddenly gone up from $1 to $25 apiece. The bill that is needed is one which shall forbid, with heavy penalties, the demanding by Democratic voters of more than $2 for votes. Unless a law of this kind is enacted the Democratic party, now deprived of federal patronage, is likely to break up within a year.

THE only important evidence in the McDow-Dawson inquest at Charleston yesterday was that of a gentleman who was driving by the scene of the murder in a carriage. He swore that he saw Dawson step off a horse car and go into McDow's office. Five minutes later he heard a voice say, "You said you would take my life; now I have taken yours." The feeling against McDow is intensified by his admission that he remained with Dawson two hours and saw him die without calling for help. McDow was committed for murder and his coachman as an accessory. The latter had carried McDow's missives to Dawson's servant girl.

GOV. Hill has prepared an electoral reform bill and sent it to the Senate with the information that he will sign it if passed. It is only a little worse than the present law. All restrictions upon bribery are removed, while voters and candidates are allowed to print and circulate their own ballots. This is the first instance in the history of the state in which a Governor has interfered with the prerogatives of the Legislature by drafting a bill and saying to it, "Take that or nothing." Mr. Linson introduced the bill. It is to be wished that he had appended to his introduction the words "by request." The Governor caused to be circulated among the members a printed argument in favor of the bill.

Last Day for Bills Except by Unanimous Consent; Business Transacted.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ALBANY, March 15.—This being the last day for the introduction of bills in the Assembly except by unanimous consent, 75 or 80 measures were dumped into the Legislature hopper. The first hour of the session was thus occupied and as the Speaker called the roll of counties nearly every member responded with one and some with a handful. Among the most important measures introduced were these: By Mullaney, authorizing the Common Council of New-York City to expend $15,000 for decorating public buildings and for a display of fire-works in the parks on the occasion of the Centennial of Washington's Inauguration. By LeRoy, increasing the salary of the Factory Inspector to $2,500, and that of his Assistant to $2,000. The deputies are increased in number from eight to 16 at salaries of $1,500. By Cottrell, simplifying the assessment and collection of State, county, town, school and village taxes by doing away with village and school collectors. By Gorham, for the amicable adjustment of disputes between chartered corporations and their employes. It provides that the Board of Mediation and Arbitration, at the request of either party, shall proceed to the locality and decide all questions involved. Such corporations and employes shall be bound by the decisions of the Board. It also provides during the pendency of such dispute the corporation shall not discharge any employe, except upon five days' notice, and the employe shall not leave the service of such corporation without five days' notice of his purpose and the reasons therefore. By Hitt, appropriating $2,500,000 for the completion of the New Capitol under the direction of the Capitol Commissioner, the plans for the completion of the structure to be first approved by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor and the Speaker of the Assembly, or a majority of them. By Towne, for the better protection of policy or certificate holders in co-operative or assessment life and casualty insurance companies. It provides officers having charge of funds shall give bonds to double the amount of money held. By Whipple, to provide for the welfare of the Indians of the State. It authorizes the Governor to cause to be surveyed all lands held by Indians as reservations, and to allot such lands in severalty in fee simple to the Indians occupying the same. A Commission of three is to be appointed by the Governor to superintend such survey, and $25,000 is appropriated for expenses. By Bauer, to secure uniform and inexpensive text-books for public schools. A Board on School Text-Books is appointed, and $10,000 is appropriated. By Stevens, repealing Chapter 623, Laws of 1887, relative to the game laws. By Bauer, appropriating $12,000 for a grade bridge at Alexander-street, Rochester. By Guenther, incorporating the Buffalo & Niagara Power and Drainage Company with a capital stock not exceeding $5,000,000. By Ainsworth, consolidating Oswego and Pullaski into a single school district. Also authorizing G. A. R. Posts to organize as a reserve guard to the militia. By Crosby, Mayor Grant's rapid transit bill. By Harwood, repealing the act to provide for the election of an additional Justice of the Peace in the town of Niagara. By Dunlap, authorizing the erection of wire fences. By Demarest, prohibiting the storing or use of naptha, gasoline or spirits of petroleum in reservoirs, tanks or other attachments to street lamps in all places in the State. By Hitt, allowing any Board of Supervisors in the State to fix the term of office of Supervisors at not more than two years.

Mr. McAdam introduced a bill providing for the labeling of bottles, boxes, etc., containing oil or lard, of which cotton seed oil is a component part.

Sullivan offered a resolution to adjourn over for St. Patrick's Day. After having some fun over the resolution the members tabled it, refusing to accept Crosby's suggestion to refer it to the Committee on Game Laws, by reason of the Patron Saint's connection with snakes.

Andrus offered a resolution which was adopted unanimously, congratulating General George S. Batcheller on his appointment as First Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Bills introduced: By Fassett, the skeleton of a prison bill, to be filled in hereafter. By Kellogg, to prevent gambling in securities and commodities. By Linson, including villages detached "or otherwise" in sections six and 12 of Chapter 573, laws of 1886, relative to the formation of town and county co-operative insurance societies.

By McAdam, to prevent gambling in coffee. By M. A. Smith, appropriating $20,000 to improve the Delaware River near Cochecton. By Husted, providing that after June 1, 1889, the principal keeper in each State Prison shall be known as the Deputy Warden and receive a salary of $2,000.

THE HERRESHOFF TORPEDO BOAT.

Encouraging Reports Received by the Navy Department About the Work.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Encouraging reports come to the Navy Department respecting the torpedo boat now building at the Herreshoff Works, in Rhode Island. The inspectors say the material used is of high quality and the work of good character. Before March 1 most of the steel skin was in place, only one course remaining to be riveted on the hull. The deck plates are on as far as practicable, the quadruple expansion engines have been set up in the shop and the contractors expect to complete the boat by June 1. The boat is required to make 22 knots an hour. If it fulfills the requirements, of which there is little doubt, it will be the fleetest boat in the United States, and fully equal to any possessed by European navies.

Mr. Flournoy said he believed the solution of this great question would be the final disfranchisement of the colored man. This, he believed, would be brought about by Northern men settling in the South and realizing the true condition of affairs and creating a sentiment in its favor in the North. Touching the issue in the coming campaign in this State the speaker declared the race question should overshadow every other. "If," said he, "I were the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, I would kick out of the party any speaker who alluded to the debt or tariff."

DIED.

MERRITT—In this City, on March 13, 1889, Laura A. Merritt, eldest daughter of Mrs. William B. Merritt, aged 20 years.

Funeral on Saturday, at 2 P. M., from the First Reformed Church of Kingston. Burial private.

LOST IN THE STORM.

One of our local editors clipped from a leading magazine extracts from a vivid description of a western blizzard which we have taken the liberty to publish and at the same time suggest to H. H. Warner & Co., the proprietors of the celebrated Warner's Safe Cure, the feasibility of taking therefrom an extract for the introduction of one of their telling advertisements. The following is the description:

"At the close of a dark day in January a solitary horseman wends his way across the open prairie in one of our Western territories. He passes at long intervals the lone cabin of the hardy frontiersman. Two or three old settlers, of whom he has inquired the way, have warned him that a storm is approaching, and one of them, with true Western hospitality, urges him to find shelter in his cabin for the night. But he declines the proffered kindness, and urges his tired horse forward. * * The sky grows suddenly dark. * * * He decides to seek shelter. * * * The storm increases in its fury. * * * The rider dismounts to warm his fast-chilling limbs. * * * Can scarcely breathe. Blindness comes on. Drowziness steals over him. The end is near. * * * He is lost in the blizzard."

There is no doubt that the terror which seizes the bewildered traveler is similar to that which overcomes one when he learns that he is suffering from an advanced Kidney Disease, and is informed that he is in the last stages of Bright's disease. At first he is informed that he has a slight kidney affection. Later he begins to feel tired. Slight headache. Fickly appetite. Failure of the eye-sight. Cramp in the calf of the legs. Wakefulness. Distressing nervousness. Rheumatic and neuralgic pains. Occasionally pain in the back. Scanty, dark colored fluids, with scalding sensation. Gradual failure of strength.

Any of the above symptoms signify Kidney Affection, but he is told that he is all right. His physician treats him for symptoms and calls it a disease, when in reality it is but a symptom of Kidney trouble. He may be treated for Rheumatic or Neuralgic pains, heart affection, or any other disease which he is most susceptible to. Finally the patient has puffing under the eyes, slight bloating of the ankles and legs. His physician may inform him that it is but the accumulation of blood in his ankles for want of proper exercise.

The bloat continues and reaches his body. Then he is informed he has dropsical troubles, and is tapped once or twice. He notices it is difficult to breathe owing to irregular action of the heart, and finally is informed that he has a slight attack of Bright's Disease. Soon his friends are notified that his is an advanced case of Bright's Disease, and that he can live but a short time. His honorable and dignified physician asks for counsel. It is too late. Still he sticks to the old family physician, and the physician knows and has known from the beginning that the patient has been stricken with death for months, for he knows full well that the profession acknowledge they have no remedies for the cure of Kidney Disease.

At last the patient suffocates—is smothered—and dies from dropsical trouble. Or perhaps the disease may not take the form of a dropsical tendency, and the patient dies from apoplexy, paralysis, pneumonia or heart trouble. Or it may take the form of blood poisoning. In each form the end is the same. And yet he and his friends were warned by the proprietors of the celebrated remedy known as Warner's Safe Cure of the lurking dangers of a slight kidney affection.

The newspapers have published the dangers. Columns of facts have been printed of men dying from advanced Kidney Disease or Bright's Disease. His friends and physician look around with horror and regret for seeming neglect, but he is lost. He did not heed the warning that a storm was approaching. He declined the proffered hospitality, and recklessly went forward into danger. He struggled manfully for a time, but his strength failed, he grew gradually weaker and he was lost to the world. Not in a blizzard, but from the terrible malady which is almost daily occurring in every community, and which is doctored as a symptom instead of what it is—a mortal disease unless properly treated.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, March 15. —Indications for Saturday: Fair weather, followed by light rain.

A SINGULAR SUGGESTION.

Admiral Porter has presented an original solution of the foreign war question. He says that if Germany should try to blockade our ports, in less than sixty days we would find an English fleet on our coast involved in protecting her own trade with the United States. "A hundred millions and more of British goods finding a market in the United States could not be cut off without ruining British industries. France would also have an interest. Meanwhile we could get along without their goods if necessary. So that England and France would be forced, as a measure of industrial self-defense, to protect their vessels and their trade with the United States."

Therefore, all we have to do, when Germany moves up with her blockade, is to say to England and France, "Drive those ships away, or we will stop buying your goods. Worse than this, we will set our own factories running, and show you that we can make our own goods." England and France would come of course and scatter the German fleets. England has knocked around the world with her guns a good deal lately, waging wars of commerce with little states and forcing them to buy of her. She has never tried this on the United States because we are too big. But here is a plan that will enable her to fight for our trade in a roundabout way, a sort of "whipping the devil over the stump." If Germany and England should secretly enter into a combination to force this obligation upon us, they would hold us at their mercy. A nation that once acknowledges to the world its helplessness and accepts England as its defender against other great powers would find it difficult to escape from the condition of thraldom in which it had placed itself. England's guns would be even more effective for protecting her trade with the United States after the blockade had been lifted than while the guns of Germany were pointing at our shores.

Perhaps the workingmen of the country would like to consider the matter. If they do not like to assist in the hazardous work of defending the country from a German blockade, they can be relieved from that duty by simply consenting to give England our trade and to have their own employments destroyed. Possibly some of them may conclude that national honor, their own manhood, citizenship, the right to labor, are not worth the cost if they must be fought for. Perhaps they would prefer to have the Union dissolved and the several states take the old position of colonies and dependencies of Great Britain. There may be such workingmen, but if so, they are probably Democrats of the Cleveland and Bayard pattern.

We look confidently for a different settlement of this little misunderstanding with Germany by the new administration. Great Britain and France will not be called on to fight for us during the next four years at least.

WHERE CLEVELAND'S GANG IS DESPISED.

The Troy Telegram, noticing the announcement that Cleveland, Lamont and Fairchild are going to Cuba, advises them to continue their journey till they reach England. There they will be received with open arms, as "those who worked so faithfully to prostrate our industries for the benefit of the English manufacturers." The Queen is expected to confer on them the order of the Knight of the Garter, and a due sense of gratitude may induce Parliament to vote every one of them a pension for life. These favors are predicted because they "despise and hate everything American." And in conclusion the Telegram prays God to "forbid that this country should ever be cursed again by such an administration."

Mr. Cleveland is learning just now what the verdict of impartial history is likely to be upon his free trade policy. The Telegram is published in a manufacturing city, which has felt and is still feeling the paralysis caused by the President's message and the long menace held over the country by the Mills bill. There is no partisanship in the Telegram; it only seeks to reflect the interests of its constituency. Rensselaer county, which gave a Democratic majority of 3,144 in 1887, turned around and gave Harrison 309 majority. Cohoes, affected by similar influence, changed its Democratic majority of 266 in 1887 to 366 for Harrison in 1888. Watervliet, which includes the large manufacturing villages of West Troy and Green Island, changed its Democratic majority of 398 to one for Harrison of 202. Waterford raised its Republican majority from 160 to 365 and Lansingburg from 581 to 976. These places all lie adjacent to Troy, whose Democratic majority fell from 3,269 to 1,804. The Telegram has therefore the backing of its manufacturing constituency in its attack on the late administration. When it prays for deliverance from the danger of another such administration, it only gives expression to the invocation of 100,000 working people.

Perhaps it is hardly necessary, however, for all representatives of labor to give utterance to all the bitterness they feel. The policy that sat like a heavy nightmare upon our industries for four years is dead, and may as well be given a decent burial. Its ghost can never rise to haunt the objects of its persecution. When Congress meets there will be set in operation an American policy. When increased tariff duties check the flood of foreign importations, and the surplus goods being poured into this country in anticipation of high duties are sold off, then there will be a clear field at home for American manufactures. We hope Mr. Cleveland and his companions will visit England and remain long enough to study the effect of free trade upon industry there. If they do this they will become much better Americans than they showed themselves to be while in office.

WEST VIRGINIA POLITICS.

As was to be expected, the Democratic Supreme Court of West Virginia decides against Senator Carr's claims as Governor, and allows Wilson to continue in office. This serves Carr right. His vote, if he had joined the Republicans, would have made Goff Governor and elected him Senator. This would have carried himself into the Governorship with an unclouded title. But he accepted an election to the chair of the Senate from the Democrats after having made a bargain with Wilson that the latter should resign in favor of Carr, who would then appoint him to the Senate. The conditions of this bargain forced Carr to vote for Kenna, whose election spoiled the program. There was then no Senatorship for Wilson, and he concluded to keep the office that he held. Now the court confirms him in that office, and Carr is "in the soup."

We notice that Gen. Goff, who is the real Governor elect of the state, has started for Washington. He permits the statement to be published that he will make a determined fight for his rights before the Legislature. But the Legislature holds only biennial sessions, and cannot meet again till January, 1891, unless Wilson calls it together. But even then he can hardly rely upon the honor of a body that refused to perform its constitutional duty of counting the vote because the count would make him Governor. His record is not stained by any deals or dickers, as is Carr's. But he should have gone to Washington before submitting his case to the decision of a partisan and scoundrelly court. He had taken the oath of office, and he should have proceeded at once to discharge its duties. Then if he found it necessary he could have carried to Washington the evidence of his election and called upon the federal administration to sustain him. He bore up nobly to the end, but failed at the critical moment. The federal government can hardly establish him in the office now, neither can it place him in a position that would take him out of the contest for the Governorship. He must wait two years and then engage in a fight that is sure to end in defeat, unless a Republican clean sweep in the Congressional districts in 1890 frightens the scoundrels into decency.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Jeff Davis no longer enjoys the distinction of being the only living Democratic ex-President. There are two of them now.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The real reason why Tom Platt didn't get into the Cabinet was because Jerry Rusk was to go there. The President objects to Tom and Jerry.—Boston Herald.

Lawyer Cleveland ought to have no difficulty in living within his income, as he already has begun a career of boarding 'round at various banqueting tables.—Buffalo Express.

New Hampshire has "sat down on" prohibition. The sturdy voters of the granite state don't believe in substituting sham for substance. A stringent high-license law will probably be next in order.—Troy Times.

The Democratic office-holder who raises the point that he is discharging the duties of his post faithfully, raises the pertinent question how he comes in the place at all when its duties were being discharged by just as good a man four years ago.—Philadelphia Press.

The new Mayor of Boston insists on a trial in that municipality of the Philadelphia plan of "pay as you go." He is on the right track. It is at times troublesome to make the taxpayer "go" fast enough for the needed pace of improvement; but it is better, despite all drawbacks, to live within the city income.—Philadelphia Record.

The true philosopher can extract the sweets of consolation from the sting of apparent defeat. President Lincoln informed a disappointed applicant who had learned the Spanish language in the expectation of receiving a diplomatic appointment that he still had a very good thing in being able to read Don Quixote in the original.—Providence Journal.

There is some curiosity touching the cause of an Arab emigration to the United States which has begun and is continuing. A newspaper suggests that the Arabs are attracted by the deserts of the Southwest. We expect that some one will say next that they are going to Albany, charmed by the fine opportunity there to "silently steal away."—Syracuse Standard.

A young man who only a few years ago was one of the best paid and most competent clerks in this city was arrested last week for vagrancy. Whisky and riotous living were his ruin. He is now without home or friends or respect, and sleeps, frequently, at the police station. He was one of those drinkers who can stop when they want to, but who never want to stop until it is too late.—Ithaca Journal.

It cannot be denied that the Republican future is brighter to-day than it has been for many years. The party is in absolute control of all the branches of government, and the admission of four new Republican states will soon give a new increment of strength to the party, while the new apportionment based on the census of 1890 will still further increase the Republican advantage.—Atlanta Constitution, Dem.

There is too much talk about the purchasable character of the Southern Negro as a reason why he is not and ought not to be allowed to vote, and it is very cheap talk. Whisky costs less than guns and ammunition, and if the Southern Negro vote could be bought for a glass of whisky it would be, and it would go to swell the Democratic majorities of the "Solid South."—Brooklyn Standard-Union.

Is ANY "FLOWER BORN TO BLUSH UNSEEN?"

The old wives tell us "that blushing is virtue's livery." But, alas! to many a maiden, whose soul is purity itself, has been denied the gracious privilege of wearing the delicate crimson; and all because her skin is covered with blotches, pimples, yellow "liver spots," and other discolorations. Who can tell how such a maiden loathes the very sight of herself, or who shall intrude upon her as she weeps bitter tears over her uncomely appearance? Thrice unhappy she, if by the use of cosmetics, she shall seek to hide her wretched complexion. But if she will use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, to regulate the liver and purify the blood of all poisonous humors, she will find that her "flesh shall come again like unto the flesh of a little child." It cures scrofula, tetter, salt-rheum, pimples, blotches, eruptions, and all skin diseases. Druggists.

Bad blood causes dyspepsia and dyspepsia reacts by causing bad blood. So both go on, growing worse, until the whole system is poisoned. The surest means of relief for the victim is a thorough and persistent course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

COMMON AIR.

The breath of life is conveyed to every part of the human lungs by means of a system of fine vessels called the bronchial tubes. When these are clogged up by an accumulation of mucous, so that breathing is very difficult, especially after any exertion, a person has the leading symptoms of Asthma or Phthisic. Besides this the tubes are often reduced to much less than their natural diameter by spasmodic contraction; often nearly suffocating the sufferer. Whether the case is of long standing or not. Dr. David Kennedy's Cherry Balsam is the most efficacious known remedy. It at once loosens the mucous matter, and causes it to be ejected by a free and easy expectoration. The Balsam in such cases should be taken in larger doses than for a common Cough, and no harm is done if some vomiting results. Take particular notice that if the disease is complicated with a dyspeptic state of the stomach Kennedy's Favorite Remedy must be used to correct the digestion. The case must be very severe that will not rapidly improve under this treatment.

FOR WOMEN.

Are you wasting slowly but surely away from the effects of female weaknesses? Are you wan, pale, and nervous? Do you not sometimes feel that life is losing its attractions, and that you are gradually sinking into a decline which, if not taken in hand promptly, will end in an early death? Yes, you have felt all these things, and doubtless know that tens of thousands of once rosy cheeked, plump, healthy girls and women go into their graves every year solely because these weaknesses were allowed to sap up the well springs of life till nature could no longer stand the strain. There is not a sensible maid, wife or mother who will not appreciate as more valuable than gold and precious stones Dr Fontaine's new remedy PALMETTO, which is safe, sure, and speedy in curing the worst case of female weakness.

Mailed secure from observation on receipt of $1.00 I also have a full line of elegant Toilet Goods, including Face Cream and Jellies, Wrinkle Paste Fattening Formula, Auburnine, Depilatory, Acnine, Freckle Lotion, etc. Development of a beautiful form a specialty. Sealed circulars, 4 cents.

By quieting and strenghtening the nerves and causing free action of the liver, bowels and kidneys and restoring their power to throw off disease.

Why tormented with Piles, Constipation?
Why frightened over Disordered Kidneys?
Why endure nervous or sick headache?
Why have sleepless nights?

★ BRIGHT'S DISEASE. ★

A Ten-Year-Old Child Saved After the Failure of Four Physicians.

My little girl, ten years of age, was taken sick in March, 1888, with scarlet fever. When recovering she took a severe cold, which developed Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Her ankles, feet and eyes were terribly swollen, she had a burning fever, and all the symptoms of an aggravated case of Bright's Disease. Four of our best physicians attended her, but without success, and

Her Life was Despaired of.

But a mother's love and prayers surmount all difficulties, and I determined to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y. This was a last resort, and I hoped, although my little daughter's case was a very severe one, that the Favorite Remedy would do for her what it had done for others whose condition had not been, seemingly, as hopeless. How happy I am that I determined upon this course—for an improvement was at once perceptible. The fever left her—her appetite improved—she gained six pounds in a short time, and one by one the well known and dreaded symptoms of the disease left her. Words fail to express my gratitude and I cannot too earnestly recommend the Favorite Remedy. It was and is due entirely to the Favorite Remedy, which was the only medicine taken after her case was abandoned by the physicians.

Mrs. Laura A. Kempton, West Rutland, Vermont.

The diseases that follow Scarlet Fever, Measles, Diphtheria and various other complaints often leave behind them sequellas of the most obstinate and dangerous character. To expel all traces of such disorders, tone up the various organs, and fill the veins with pure and nutritious blood, use

THE "OLD SETTLER" AGAIN.

HE TELLS OF AN EXPERIENCE HE HAD IN NEW-YORK CITY.

Met a Bunco Steerer, was Arrested and Brought Into Court, where He Recognized the Judge as an Old Friend—Given Three Months.

"Good morning, 'Squire," said the Major to Marlborough's "Old Settler," as he whittled on a piece of stick in the sunlight, near the Post-Office, in that village, on Tuesday forenoon. "How d' yer come outen your trip ter York?" continued the Major.

"We'al, Major," replied the 'Squire, beckoning to his friend. "Come over here 'an I'll tell you. York is a big town, ain't it, Major? Give us a chaw of 'marnen dew,' Major, an' I'll tell you a bit of my 'sperience sine I have been away. 'Twer in '48 ther last time I were in York, and I'll be 'cussed to harry' ef times haint changed 'siderable, Major. Yes, they hes. Say, you 'member when you and me went down on ther 'Victory'?"

"'Member it, well, er, I kindy reckon I do," replied the Major. "Thet's something I'll never fergit, 'Squire, never."

"Well, as I was a-sayen, I hev hed some of ther allfiredest 'speriences since I were down ther in York what I hev' ever hed in my life. One day, es I was a walken out on ther 'highway' what leads down to ther Post-Office in York, I was tooken by the arm by a man who called me Mr. Caldwin. Says he, 'You looker much like father.' 'Father,' says I. 'Yep, father. You must know father. Why, father, he was an old friend of yours,' says he. Ther way that man went on was er caution. Says I ter myself, 'I'll let this here fool go on a bit, an' see how he acts when he fetches up.' 'Sarah Jane' said ter me 'fore I went out ther house ter be a bit kerful, 'case these ere men always was a tryen to haul in old countrymen like me. This kinder put me on ther lookout. Just es he was a gitten in his funny work I hauled off an' give him a humper right under the left eye. Quicker an' a wink there was a crowd of fellers around us. 'Who are you?' said er man. 'I'll be gosh-darned ef I'm es green es I look,' says I. 'I'm from Marlberry on the Hudson River, 70 miles or thereabout from this very town, an' I kin lick the daylites outen any young 'flicker' thet ever fluked bouten here ef I am an old hayseed,' says I. Just then, Major, the feller rized to his feet and come ter me agin. This made me all tarnation mad. I squared myself fer him and was about letten it go fer his eye glasses, when a constable grabbed me from behind and held my hands, so es I could not strike out. Then I did git mad. I jist got up and I says, squaren off, 'I hev licked 10 constables like you in a day, up in Marlberry, an ef you don't let up on me for a minute I'll knock yer gosh darned brass buttons clean over'n that there field over there.' Gosh, Major, I hed no more an sed that an I was tooken in quickerin 'Ose' Mackey ken drive up ther hill from ther depot. Ther constable said I were drunk an he took me ter jail. The other feller, the feller what I hed licked, he came up ter me an says, 'Old man, I kin git yer off fer $5.' 'You steer clear from me, young flicker, or I'll smash yer in ther 'bosis,' says I. Jest then ther constable grabbed ther feller and chained him fast ter me. Oh how that duffer did beg fer to git away, but ther constable held on ter him like death. When we got ter the Court House we was tookin afore the Jedge. Just as soon as I sot eyes on the Jedge, I says, 'I know him.' Who do yer suppose was Jedge, Major; Why 'Case Dutcher,' old boy, 'Case' what use ter come up ter see Matilda, my oldest sister, when we lived in Barnegat. Jest as soon as he sot eyes on me he said, 'Officer what—why what on 'arth are you doin' here, 'Square Poppleton, chained fast ter that feller?' 'How de do, old friend,' says I. 'How long hev you been here, Jedge Dutcher, I thot you wus outen Kalaforny.' 'But, officer, how's this here?' says the Jedge. 'I'll tell you 'Case,' says I, so I up an told him the circumstances. 'You are discharged,' said Case, 'an I'll give that other feller three months. Cum up on ther bench,' says Case. So I went up and sot down beside him fer over two hours. Great place that there Perleece Court in York, Major. I tell you a man hes got ter be pritty gosh darned smart what does like Case Dutcher."

"'Twas a narrer 'scape fer you, waren't it, 'Squire?"

"Well, I'll bet my blue buttons, 'twas Major. When I went over an' told mother and Sarah Jane what'd 'curred, they almost hed a couniption fit. Why, ther way they went on 'twas a caution. They said, after this, I could not go out alone. But I reckon I'm of age; says I, 'an' ef I can't walk on ther roads in York alone I kin up hum Marlberry.' This fixed them. I hev got ter go over ter ther house, now Major. Come over on Sunday and bring 'Tilda' 'long wiih you. I'll make yer laugh when I tell you what a time we hed up in Central Park, wif ther animals."

"All right, 'Squire, ef 'Tilda' don't go up ter Perkeepsey, Sunday, we'll be over."

A Queer Will.

[From an Exchange.]

Surrogate Tuthill, of Suffolk County, has admitted to probate the will of Richard L. Peters, of Southold, Long Island. The will directs the investment of a sum of money, the income of which will be used in keeping his grave covered with growing flowers. Another request is that a sum be invested at compound interest for 100 years. The principal and interest at the expiration of the time are to be used to erect a monument and celebrate the centennial of his death. His children he restricts to a life interest in his estate. To the Presbyterian Church of Southold he gives $2,000 and to the Methodist Church $1,500. Neither church, however, can receive its bequest until the money has increased to $5,000. It is said that the will may be contested.

Second Largest in World.

[From an Exchange.]

There is a bill before the Legislature to enlarge the area of New-York City, so as to make one City, under one municipal government, of Manhattan Island, Staten Island, all Kings County, Flushing, Newtown and Jamaica, in Queens County, and all of Westchester County. This would give the City an area 10 times larger than it has at present. The City would then be the second largest in the world, its area being about 320 square miles. The present population of this territory is 3,000,000. Within the next 10 years it is estimated it will be over 5,000,000. London, the largest City in the world, has an area of 600 square miles and a population of 5,000,000.

Snow Birds' Reunion.

[From the Newburgh Register.]

W. H. Coldwell did not attend the reunion of the Snow Birds at Hastings last evening, owing to his feeble condition resulting from his recent long illness. The Snow Birds consist of 37 gentlemen and ladies who were snow-bound during the blizzard of 1888 on a Hudson River train at Dobbs Ferry, and walked five miles to the Beaver Hotel at Hastings for shelter and comfort. They agreed to meet annually to celebrate the event, and Mr. Coldwell was chosen President of the Snow Birds.

A Hunter's Mishap.

[From the Roxbury Times.]

Tuesday morning, while Richard Sherwood was hunting, he attempted to draw a charge of small shot from his gun in order to load for larger game, and while holding his hand over the muzzle, in some manner, the cap which he had neglected to remove, exploded, and the entire charge passed through the palm of his right hand, making a hole nearly an inch in diameter. The wound was dressed by Dr. Ellis, and is doing as well as can be expected.

An Important Announcement

About six weeks ago, while at business, I was suddenly attacked with excruciating pains in my feet, knees and hands. So severe the attack that I took my bed immediately, and in two or three days my joints were swollen to almost double their natural size, and sleep was driven from me. After suffering the most excruciating pain for a week, using liniment and various other remedies, a friend who sympathized with my helpless condition said to me: "Why don't you get Swift's Specific and use it. I will guarantee a cure and if it does not the medicine shall cost you nothing."

I at once secured the S. S. S., and after using it the first day, had a quiet night and refreshing sleept In a week I felt greatly benefitted. In three weeks I could sit up and walk about the room, and after using six bottles I was out and able to go to business. Since then I have been regularly at my post of duty, and stand on my feet from nine to ten hours a day, and am entirely free from pain. These are the plain and simple facts in my case, and I will cheerfully answer all inquries relative thereto, either in person or by mail. THOMAS MARKILLIE.

OUR LITTLE SON.

Four years old, afflicted with a painful skin disease. Six doctors tried to cure him; all Failed. Got worse and worse. Completely cured by one set of Cuticura Remedies, costing $1.75.

Our little son will be four years of age on the 25th instant. In May, 1885, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician, who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment, as the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be hives in an aggravated form, became larger in blotches, and more and more distressing. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, strong liniments, etc. Finally, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily getting worse and worse, until about the 20th of last July, when we began to give him Cuticura Resolvent internally, and the Cuticura, and Cuticura Soap externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him only one dose of the Resolvent about every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady. In all we used less than one-half of a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a little less than one box of Cuticura, and only one cake of Cuticura Soap.

Have you noticed the languor and debilitiy that succeed the effort to clear your throat and head of this catarrhal matter? What a depressing influence it exerts upon the mind, clouding the memory and filling the head with pains and strange noises! How difficult it is to rid the nasal passages, throat and lungs of this poisonous mucus all can testify who are afflicted with catarrh. How difficult to protect the system against its further progress towards the lungs, liver and kidneys, all physicians will admit. It is a terrible disease, and cries out for relief and cure.

The remarkable curative powers, when all other remedies utterly fail, of Sanford's Radical Cure, are attested by thousands who gratefully recommend it to fellow-sufferers. No statement is made regarding it that cannot be substantiated by the most respectable and reliable references.

Each packet contains one bottle of Radical Cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent, and an Improved Inhaler, with treatise and directions, and is sold by all druggists for $1.00.

He attended schools here and graduated from Kingston Academy. For a time he was in the stone business in this City. In 1876 he went to Boston and engaged with the United States Life Insurance Company, his cousin, John E. DeWitt, being President of the same. Later Mr. VanGaasbeek became connected with the Union Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Maine, and was elected Assistant Secretary of the Company. His health failing in 1880 he returned to Kingston. Mr. VanGaasbeek was married to Mary Booth, daughter of Nathaniel Booth, of Wilbur, January 1, 1883. A daughter, the issue of the marriage, died in 1885. He became a member of the First Reformed Church when he was 14 years old. A genial and delightful companion, his generous and kindly nature won for him many friends. His death in the prime of his manhood is deeply lamented. The body will be brought to Kingston for burial.

IN THE ULSTER COUNTY COURT.

Verdict Rendered—About a Sewing Machine—Circuit Court—Partition Case.

In Ulster County Court, in session in Kingston, the jury in the case of Hayes vs. Cornish et al. rendered a verdict of $92 for plaintiff.

No. 9, Catherine McLaughlin vs. Rowland C. Bowne, was tried. The jury failed to agree. The jurors were discharged. The facts shown in the case were that the defendant went, in company with an officer, to the house of a Mrs. McLaughlin, on Abruyn-avenue, Kingston, to get a sewing machine, which he claimed had not been paid for. Mrs. McLaughlin averred that the machine was hers, and while she tried to prevent Bowne from taking it he took hold of her by the wrist. Plaintiff claimed she was injured to the extent of $500. The defense was that defendant merely went there to assist the officer, and what he did was for that purpose. Defendant claimed that he did not use force sufficient to do injury. This case was tried at a former County Court. The jury at that time failed to agree.

The Court adjourned until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

CIRCUIT COURT.

In Circuit Court, Kingston, the case of William C. Young vs. The West Shore and New-York Central Railroad was ordered to stand over until April 2, to be heard by consent at Special Term at Albany.

M. J. Madden vs. Frederick Poole, judgment on foreclosure of mortgage ordered.

The case of Celia B. O'Reilly vs. William Hutton and others was tried. The action was brought by Mrs. O'Reilly to restrain the sale of real estate under execution, claiming that the defendants had agreed to wait before enforcing judgment until the determination of an action in the Court of Appeals in reference to the Union-avenue assessments. The case will be submitted at the Albany Special Term before May 1, the day to be named by counsel.

PARTITION CASE.

A hearing was had yesterday afternoon in Kingston in the partition case of Frederick Happy against Elizabeth Happy et al. The property which the plaintiff asks to have partitioned, is a farm and wood land formerly owned by Jacob Happy, town of Woodstock, which contains 938 acres. A number of witnesses testified that its value is from $5,000 to $5,500. At the close of this testimony the case was adjourned to March 21.

A GLOWING OUTLOOK REPORTED.

Successful Fruit Season Promised in Southern Ulster—Large Yield.

Southern Ulster fruit-growers report that the forthcoming fruit season gives promise of being one of the most successful of any heretofore. Fruit buds are alive and indications point to a large yield of every variety of fruit cultivated in Ulster County. Usually, at this season of the year, painstaking horticulturists make an examination of every fruit-bearing vine and tree upon their farms. This is done, that they may know the possible result of the fruiting season. Should a vine be alive, even to the "tips," and the leaf and fruit buds show a healthy growth, an accurate opinion can be formed as to the success of the fruit yield, barring, of course, any danger that may arise from a change of temperature. The condition of the peach tree—a particularly uncertain fruit-bearing tree—gives much encouragement to growers who are fortunate in having a peach orchard on their farms. The peach crop, growers say, will be enormous, and fully equal to any yield of that fruit harvested between Catskill and Cornwall. Thus far the prospects are bright for the men who do much and who have done much to raise the profession of fruit-culture to its present high standard.

DESCRIPTION OF THE UNKNOWN MAN

Who Was Found in Creek, at Catskill, on Wednesday.

The body of the unknown man found at Burgett's Creek, Catskill, on Wednesday, is thus described: The dead man probably was a laborer. Was five feet eight or nine inches in height, weighing about 160 pounds, and apparently was about 40 years old. His hair, which was short cut, was light-brown, as also a short moustache. He was dressed in dark trousers of a small plaid pattern fastened at the waist with a leather strap; vest of same material as trousers; grey undershirt, checked woolen outer shirt; white cotton socks, Congress gaiters; no coat or hat. There was nothing on the body to identify it, the pockets yielding only a fine comb and a match. The left leg was cut nearly off, between the knee and hip. Another long, deep, diagonal cut in the thigh extended into the groin. It looks as though the man had been run over by the cars.

What State Engineer Says.

The report of the State Engineer, made recently, says: "Under the provisions of the act to improve the Hudson River between Troy and Coxsackie, a large amount of work has been done by the Superintendent of Public Works, amounting to 196,414 1-10 cubic yards of material dredged and removed from the channel of the River. The dikes erected a number of years ago by the United States Government are in many places in need of immediate repair. The expenditure by the general government of a comparatively moderate amount in the repair of these dikes would prevent the necessity for their entire renewal, which will certainly otherwise become necessary very soon, and would also greatly lessen the formation of the bars, on the removal of which the State annually has to expend a large amount of money."

"No Cause of Action."

Recently a Kingston lawyer asked a country Justice:

"Well, what became of that suit against ——, tried before you?"

Country Justice—"O! I couldn't make head nor tail to it after the lawyers got through."

"What did you do?"

"Why, I just charged the jury, and told them if they knew anything about the case they knew more than I did, and then I sent them out to deliberate."

"What did the jury do?"

"O! they found 'No cause of action.'"

Wedding.

Invitations have been received in this City to the wedding of Miss Clara Belle Searles, daughter of the Rev. William N. Searles, D. D., formerly Pastor of St. James M. E. Church, Kingston, to Charles H. VanHagen, to take place at the Washington Heights M. E. Church, New-York, on Thursday evening, March 28.

Affairs of Local Railroads.

Several new locomotives for passenger traffic have been added to the equipment of the Ontario & Western Railroad.

F. W. Jones, of Greenport, Columbia County, has a contract to furnish sufficient stone to ballast the road-bed of the Hudson River Railroad from Poughkeepsie to Troy.

Industrial.

A knitting factory may soon be located in Newburgh.

Sutton & Suderly have leased lands for brick making purposes, on the property of B. T. E. Bronk, at North-Coeymans.

The new chair factory at Hunter is said to excell the former in many respects, among which is new and improved machinery.

Closed by Sheriff.

The dry goods store of F. A. Maynard, of Newburgh, has been closed by the Sheriff of Orange County on executions, amounting to nearly $5,000.

Anniversary.

To-day is the anniversary of the birth-day of Andrew Jackson. The event happened 194 years ago.

IN THE LOCAL FIELD OF EDUCATION.

Questions Asked Candidates for Certificates —New School House.

A new school house will soon be built at Bloomville, Delaware County.

At the examination held for School Commissioners' certificates, in Ulster Academy, Rondout, recently, 13 candidates were examined for first grade certificates, and six for second grade. The following are some of the questions the applicants were called upon to answer:

What effect on the heart's action has the excessive use of tobacco by adults?

Give three directions for preserving the teeth to which the attention of children could be called.

In what time will $650 amount to $713.05 at six per cent. simple interest?

Find the proceeds of a three months' note for $500 discount at a bank at 6 per cent.

Mention two routes by which a canal boat can leave Toronto and reach New-York City without going to sea.

Name three great railroad routes from New-York City to Buffalo.

Mention two respects in which our system of government is better than that of Great Britain.

What officers are the legal advsiers of the President?

What is the general duty of a District Attorney?

Give an account of John Brown's raid.

Give three causes for which a School Commissioner may annul a teacher's certificate.

Explain the application of convection in warming a room.

Name the members of President Harrison's Cabinet.

Name the Members of Assembly and Representative of Congress in your district.

State three qualifications that a voter at our State elections must have.

Give the official titles of the judicial officers who constitute a Court of Sessions.

[From an Exchange.]

A special committee of the New-York Board of Education has prepared a report in favor of abolishing the present marking system in public schools, substituting for it the teacher's judgment as to the record of proficiency to which each pupil may be entitled. To commit to memory the pages of a text-book and repeat the facts with more or less accuracy can neither stimulate application nor awaken interest in the young mind. Nor is it just to the teacher that the question of his or her efficiency should depend, not upon the real progress of the pupil, but upon a capacity for remembering facts, without regard to practical results. The true object of education cannot be attained by converting the mind into a mere knowledge-box, with carefully-labeled compartments, the contents of which are for use on examination day only.

SOME PHASES OF THE SEAMY SIDE.

Cases in Recorder's Court To-Day—Fifteen Days for Vagrancy.

This forenoon a man named Frank Weiss was sentenced to 15 days in the Ulster County Jail, Kingston, by 'Squire Keator, of Rosendale, for vagrancy.

The case of Lincoln Lyons, which came before a Justice in the town of Ulster, in which defendant was charged with forging the signature of a man named Wood to a note, has been withdrawn.

A boy named Leon Austin was arraigned before Recorder Hussey to-day, charged with having struck with a stone a child of one William Hoffman, in Ponckhockie, yesterday. Being under nine years of age the lad was reprimanded and the complaint withdrawn.

An old man named Thomas Furlong was arraigned in Recorder's Court, this City, this forenoon, charged with theft. The complainant was one Frank Stephens, who alleged that in February, 1883, Furlong boarded with him when the West Shore tunnel at Wilbur was being built, and that Furlong, in his —Stephens—absence stole from his trunk clothing and about $140 in money. A warrant was issued at the time, but Furlong disappeared. Officer Glennon arrested the accused man yesterday. Owing to the non-appearance of Stephens, the prisoner was discharged, subject, however, to arrest when the complainant desires to press the charge.

Canned goods were marked down five cents, in Poughkeepsie, on Tuesday. Grocers in this City have not been informed of this bearish movement.

A visit to the various photographic galleries in this City will convince the most skeptical that there are many ladies of handsome features in this City, and, as a rule, the articles of dress displayed are modest, and there is no attempt to secure what are termed fancy or "stage" portraits.

Appearances are Often Deceiving.

A dispatch from Middletown to the New-York Times says: On February 15 last William Egan, aged about 50 years, was killed while shovelling in a cut on the new Orange County Railroad, now building near Campbell Hall. He was a stranger to his fellow-laborers, having been employed there only a few days. He was poorly clothed and apparently in abject poverty. No close search of the remains were made, and the body was buried, at the cost of the County, in the County Alms House graveyard. It now appears that the deceased had a sister, a Mrs. E. Corcoran, living at 75 Carroll-street, Brooklyn. By some means she heard of her brother's death, whereupon she wrote to Campbell Hall, inquiring in regard to the circumstances, and also if any valuables were found on his body. On receiving a reply she came on here a day or two ago and caused the body to be exhumed and searched. In a belt around the waist of the dead miser were found $400 in greenbacks and a New-York Savings Bank book showing credits to the amount of over $1,000.

State Charities Aid Association.

The Local Branch of the State Charities Aid Association held a meeting in the Court House, Kingston, this afternoon. Hon. James G. Lindsley presided. F. A. Westbrook acted as Secretary. The Asylum Visiting Committee of Ten reported. The report was favorable to the management of the Asylum at New-Paltz, and favored the keeping of chronic insane in Ulster County.

Mrs. Louise Godfrey

who resides on Spring-street, Bangor, Me. has abiding faith in the virtues of Brown's Sarsaparilla, and has the best of reason for it. Twelve years ago she had a severe illness, and from the lack of proper treatment a scrofulous abcess formed and although for a number of years it was not particularly troublesome, three years ago it began to discharge causing her a great deal of annoyance and apprehension. This continued for two years when she began the use of Brown's Sarsaparilla. One bottle stopped the discharge and four completed a cure and this is why she in Brown's Sarsaparilla. Again showing what a deadly foe Brown's Sarsaparilla is to all forms of scrofula, Mr. F. A. Bishop, of the firm of Kimball & Bishop, doing business at Hermon, Me., says: "I began taking Brown's Sarsaparilla for indigestion, when to my intense surprise, a tumor which had troubled me for more than five years, coming out on my shoulder blade so I could not lay back in my chair without causing me great pain, began to grow smaller and smaller until it has entirely disappeared. My stomach trouble left me and I am a well man owing to the wonderful curative powers of
